

agency[ˈeɪdʒ(ə)nsi] n

- 1) агентство, представительство
 wire service agency - телеграфноеагентство
 news agency - информационноеагентство
 the large firm has agencies all overthe world - эта крупная фирма имеет свои представительстваво многих странах
- 2) орган, организация; учреждение
 tourist /travel/ agency - бюро путешествий agency of command [liaison] - амер. воен. орган управления войсками [обеспечения взаимодействия]
 specialized agencies - специализированные учреждения (в ООН)
 Central Intelligence Agency - Центральное разведывательное управление
2. содействие, посредничество
 by /through/ the agency of smb., smth. - посредством /при помощи, при содействии/ кого-л., чего-л.
 nominated by the agency of friends - выдвинутый на должность стараниями друзей agency of Providence - рука провидения, промыс(е)л божий
3. сила, фактор средство
 agency of destruction - средство разрушения
 iron is melted by the agency of heat - железо расплавляют путём нагревания, железо плавится при нагревании
4. действие, деятельность (агента, представителя и т. п.)

agency

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

agency [agency agencies] BrE [ˈeɪdʒənsi] [Ⓜ] NAmE [ˈeɪdʒənsi] [Ⓜ] noun (pl.agencies)

1. a business or an organization that provides a particular service especially on behalf of other businesses or organizations
 - an advertising/employment agency
 - You can book at your local travel agency .
 - international aid agencies caring for refugeessee also ↑dating agency, ↑news agency, ↑press agency
2. (especially NAmE) a government department that provides a particular service
 - the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)Idiom: ↑through the agency of

Word Origin:mid 17th cent.: from medieval Latin agentia, from agent- ‘doing’, from agere.Example Bank:

- Details of the problem will be logged by the Help Desk staff who will then contact the appropriate agency.
- He found a job through an agency.
- He managed to find a job through an agency.
- I've signed up with a temping agency.
- She was hired from a temp agency.
- He works for an advertising agency.
- International aid agencies are caring for many of the refugees.
- the Central Intelligence Agency

agency

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

a [gen] cy S3 W1 /ˈeɪdʒənsi/ BrE [Ⓜ] AmE [Ⓜ] noun (plural agencies) [countable]

1. a business that provides a particular service for people or organizations
an advertising/employment/travel etc agency [Ⓜ] a local housing agency ⇒ ↑dating agency, ↑news agency
2. an organization or department, especially within a government, that does a specific job:
[Ⓜ] a UN agency responsible for helping refugees
[Ⓜ] the Environmental Protection Agency
3. by/through the agency of somebody formal being done as the result of someone's help

agency

Freakuency Pack

12500 1003^{MCW}15000 483^{COCA}RANGE: 1k AGENT 100640

agent 21742

agency 37475

agencies 22317

agents 18475

interagency 631

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

17117 1091³⁷⁴¹⁵ *nn1*32 125705³⁸ *nnu*18 168602²² np1