

boisterous[ˈbɔɪst(ə)rəs] a

1) неистовый, бурный

boisterous weather [wind] - разбушевавшаяся стихия [-ийся ветер]

2) шумливый; громогласный

boisterous

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

bois-ter-ous BrE [ˈbɔɪstərəs] ^ˈ NAmE [ˈbɔɪstərəs] ^ˈ adjective

(of people, animals or behaviour) noisy and full of life and energy

- It was a challenge, keeping ten boisterous seven-year-olds amused.
- The children and the dogs raced out of the house to give me a boisterous welcome.

Derived Word †boisterouslyWord Origin:[boisterous boisterously] late Middle English (in the sense 'rough, stiff'): variant of earlier boistuous 'rustic, coarse, boisterous', of unknown origin.boisterous

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

bois-ter-ous /ˈbɔɪstərəs/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ adjective[Date: 1400-1500; Origin: boistous 'rough' (14-16 centuries), from Old French boistos] someone, especially a child, who is boisterous makes a lot of noise and has a lot of energy:

a class of boisterous five-year-olds

boisterous

Freakuency Pack

12500 10066^{MCW}15000 10120^{COCA}RANGE: 8k BOISTEROUS ⁶⁶⁵boisterous ⁶¹³boisterousness ¹¹boisterously ⁴¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁵⁸⁴ 28323⁶¹³ jj