

stout

I

1. [stʌvt] n
 1. полный, тучный человек
 2. большой, полный размер (одежды)
2. [stʌvt] a
 1. крепкий, прочный; плотный
 - a stout piece of string - крепкий кусок шпагата
 - stout rope [cardboard] - толстый трос [картон]
 - stout wall [sole] - толстая/прочная/ стена [подмётка /подошва/]
 - stout ship - прочное судно
 2. отважный, смелый
 - stout fellow - разг. бравый малый
 - stout champion - храбрый защитник
 - stout heart - преданное /верное/ сердце; надёжный союзник, друг и т. п.
 - stout defense - упорная оборона
 - to make /to put up/ a stout resistance - оказать упорное сопротивление
3. полный, тучный, дородный
 - to grow stout - пополнеть
 - to be getting /growing/ stout - полнеть

II

[stʌvt] n
стаут, крепкий портер

stout

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

stout [stout stouter stoutest] adjective, noun BrE [stʌvt] [ⓘ] NAmE [stʌvt] [ⓘ]

adjective (stout-er, stout-est)

1. (of a person) rather fat
Syn: ↑plump
2. usually before noun strong and thick
 - a stout pair of shoes
 - a stout stick
3. usually before noun (formal) brave and determined
 - He put up a stout defence in court.
 - This requires a stout heart.

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Anglo-Norman French and Old French dialect, of West Germanic origin; perhaps related to ↑stilt. The noun (late 17th cent.) originally denoted any strong beer and is probably short for stout ale.

Derived Words ↑stoutly ▪ ↑stoutness

noun uncountable, countable

strong dark beer made with ↑malt or ↑barley

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Anglo-Norman French and Old French dialect, of West Germanic origin; perhaps related to ↑stilt. The noun (late 17th cent.) originally denoted any strong beer and is probably short for stout ale.

stout

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. stout¹ /stʌvt/ BrE [ⓘ] AmE [ⓘ] adjective

[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: estout]

1. fairly fat and heavy, or having a thick body:
 - a short, stout man
2. literary strong and thick SYN sturdy:
 - a stout pair of shoes
3. formal brave and determined
stout defence/support/resistance
 - He put up a stout defence in court.

—stoutly adverb:

▪ She stoutly denied the rumours.

—stoutness noun [uncountable]

II. stout² BrE [ⓘ] AmE [ⓘ] noun [uncountable]

strong dark beer

stout

Freakuency Pack

12500 10101^{MCW}

15000 7071^{COCA}

RANGE: 8k STOUT ¹⁵⁴⁹

stout 1350
stouter 55
stoutest 16
stoutness 10
stoutly 118

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

761 22727⁸⁸⁷ jj

321 33496⁴⁵⁹ nn1

3 467588⁴ np1
