quip

1. [kwɪp] n

  1. 1) саркастическое замечание; колкость

    2) мудрое изречение

  2. софизм; игра слов; увёртка

  3. что-л. странное

  4. безделушка, украшение

2. [kwɪp] v

язвительно высмеивать; делать колкое замечание; насмехаться

❝She is much too cultured❞, he quipped to his friend - «Она для этого чересчур культурна», - язвительно заметил он своему другу

---

quip

quip [quip quips quipped quipping] noun, verb BrE [kwɪp]　NAmE [kwɪp]

noun

  a quick and clever remark

    • to make a quip

  Word Origin:

  mid 16th cent.: perhaps from Latin quippe 'indeed , forsooth'.

  Example Bank:

    • The senator made several quips during the interview, which got the audience laughing.

verb (-pp-)+ speech

  to make a quick and clever remark

  Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we /they	quip
	BrE /kwɪp/
	NAmE /kwɪp/
he / she /it	quips
	BrE /kwɪps/
	NAmE /kwɪps/
past simple, past participle	quipped
	BrE /kwɪpt/
	NAmE /kwɪpt/
-ing form	quipping
	BrE /kwɪpɪŋ/
	NAmE /kwɪpɪŋ/

  Word Origin:

  mid 16th cent.: perhaps from Latin quippe 'indeed , forsooth'.

  Example Bank:

    • 'Don't bank on it!' he quipped, when I asked him to be careful with the money.

    • 'I hope you're not in a hurry!' she quipped, and everyone laughed.

---

quip

quip /kwɪp/ BrE　AmE　verb (past tense and past participle quipped, present participle quipping) [transitive]

  [Date: 1500-1600; Origin: Perhaps from Latin quippe 'certainly, indeed', from quid 'what'] to say something clever and amusing:

    'Giving up smoking is easy,' he quipped. 'I've done it hundreds of times.'

  —quip noun [countable]:

    an amusing quip

---

quip

  12500 10146MCW

  15000 7830COCA

  RANGE: 11k QUIP 1237

    quip 239

    quipping 16

    quipped 509

    quips 473

  COCA 500k Unlemmatized

    188 53961193 nn1

    32 13297534 vvi

    12 23405712 vv0