

tomorrow1. [tə'mɒrəʊ] n*1) завтрашний день

tomorrow will be Sunday - завтра воскресенье

till tomorrow - до завтра

for tomorrow - на завтра

the day after tomorrow - послезавтра tomorrow's paper - завтрашняя газета

2) будущее

tomorrow is with us - за нами будущее

the citizens of tomorrow - граждане будущего /завтрашнего дня/who knows what tomorrow holds? - кто знает, что ждёт нас в будущем?; ≅ что день грядущий нам готовит?

◇ tomorrow is a new /another/ day - а) утро вечера мудренее; завтра будет видно; б) рано думать о завтра, довлеет дневи злоба его tomorrow come never - ≅ после дождичка в четверг, когда рак (на горе) свистнет never put off till tomorrow what you can do today - посл. не откладывай на завтра то, что можешь сделать сегодня2. [tə'mɒrəʊ] adv*завтра

tomorrow morning [afternoon] - завтра утром [днём]

tomorrow week - через восемь дней

it will rain tomorrow - завтра будет дождь

see you tomorrow - до завтра

tomorrow

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

to·mor·row [tomorrow tomorrows] adverb, noun BrE [tə'mɒrəʊ] ¹ NAmE[tə'mɒrəʊ] ¹ NAmE [tə'mɑrəʊ] ¹adverb

on or during the day after today

• I'm off now. See you tomorrow.

• She's leaving tomorrow.

• (especially BrE) They arrive a week tomorrow/tomorrow week (= after a week, starting from tomorrow) .see jam tomorrow at ↑jam ⁿ.Word Origin:

Middle English (as two words): from the preposition ↑to + ↑morrow. Compare with ↑today and ↑tonight.

Idiom: ↑do something as if there's no tomorrownoun uncountable*1. the day after today

• Today is Tuesday, so tomorrow is Wednesday.

• tomorrow afternoon/morning/night/evening• I'll see you the day after tomorrow .

• The announcement will appear in tomorrow's newspapers.

• I want it done by tomorrow.

• Tomorrow will be fine and dry according to the weather forecast.

2. the future

• Who knows what changes tomorrow may bring?

• Tomorrow's workers will have to be more adaptable.

Word Origin:

Middle English (as two words): from the preposition ↑to + ↑morrow. Compare with ↑today and ↑tonight.

Example Bank:

• We need to plan for a better tomorrow.

tomorrow

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. to·mor·row ¹ S1 W2 /tə'mɒrəʊ $ -'mɒrəʊ, -'mɑrəʊ/ BrE ¹ AmE ¹ adverb

[Language: Old English; Origin: to morgen, from to 'to' + morgen 'morning'] on or during the day after today ⇒ yesterday, today:

" Our class is going to London tomorrow.

a week from tomorrow (also a week tomorrow/tomorrow week) British English:

" Terry's new job starts a week tomorrow.

tomorrow morning/night etc

" We're meeting tomorrow evening.

II. tomorrow ² BrE ² AmE ² noun [uncountable]1. the day after today ⇒ yesterday, today:

" I'll see you at tomorrow's meeting.

2. the future, especially the near future:

" The computers of tomorrow will be smaller and more powerful.

3. do something like there's no tomorrow do something very quickly and carelessly, without worrying about the future:

" Rita's spending money like there's no tomorrow.

tomorrow

Freakuency Pack

12500 1033^{MCW}

15000 1347^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k TOMORROW ³¹⁸⁷⁰

tomorrow ³¹⁷⁶⁷

tomorrows ¹⁰³

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

¹⁶⁹⁶⁶ 1326³¹⁶⁷⁸ rt

⁴¹ 108917⁵⁰ nnu

¹⁹ 176630²⁰ nn1

¹⁹ 180981¹⁹ jj
