

Friday['fraɪdɪ] n

1. пятница
on Friday - в пятницу
he arrived on the Tuesday and left on the Friday - он приехал в этот вторник и уехал в пятницу на той же неделе
Black Friday - «чёрная пятница»
Good Friday - церк. Великая пятница /-ий пяток/, пятница на страстной неделе
2. Пятница, верный преданный слуга или сотрудник (мж. Man Friday; персонаж романа Д. Дефо «Робинзон Крузо»)
girl Friday - опытная и старательная секретарша ◇ to have a Friday look /face/ - иметь мрачный /постный/ вид

Friday

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

Fri·day [Friday Fridays] BrE ['fraɪdeɪ] <sup>ˈ</sup> NAmE ['fraɪdeɪ] <sup>ˈ</sup> BrE ['fraɪdɪ] <sup>ˈ</sup>NAmE ['fraɪdɪ] <sup>ˈ</sup> noun countable, uncountable (abbr. Fri.)

the day of the week after Thursday and before Saturday To see how Friday is used, look at the examples at Monday. Originally translated from the Latin for 'day of the planet Venus' Veneris dies and named after the Germanic goddess Frigga.

Friday

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

Fri·day /'fraɪdi, -deɪ/ BrE <sup>ˈ</sup> AmE <sup>ˈ</sup> noun [uncountable and countable] (*written abbreviationFri.)[Language: Old English; Origin: fringedæg 'day of Frigg, female god of love']

the day between Thursday and Saturday

on Friday

- ˈ It's Kate's birthday on Friday.
- ˈ Diane won't be here Friday. American English

Friday morning/afternoon etc

- ˈ Can you meet me Friday morning?

last Friday

- ˈ I had a terrible time last Friday.

this Friday

- ˈ We're flying to Vienna this Friday.

next Friday (=Friday of next week)

- ˈ Her appointment is next Friday.

a Friday (=one of the Fridays in the year)

- ˈ We got married on a Friday.