

wand

[wɒnd] n

1. 1) тонкая палочка
- 2) дирижёрская палочка
- 3) волшебная палочка
with a wave of a wand - по мановению волшебной палочки
2. поэт., уст. жезл; скипетр
3. преим. шотл. удилище
4. тонкая ветка; побег; прут
5. слец. вешка, маркировочная палочка (мж. wand marker)

wand

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

wand [wand wands] BrE [wɒnd] <sup>1</sup> NAmE [wɑːnd] <sup>1</sup> noun

1. (also magic 'wand) a straight thin stick that is held by sb when performing magic or magic tricks
    - The fairy waved her wand and the table disappeared.
    - You can't expect me to just wave a (magic) wand and make everything all right again.
  2. any object in the shape of a straight thin stick
    - a mascara wand
- See also: ↑magic wand

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old Norse voǫndr, probably of Germanic origin and related to ↑wend and ↑wind <sup>2</sup>.

wand

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. wand <sup>1</sup> /wɒnd $ wɑːnd BrE <sup>1</sup> AmE <sup>1</sup> noun [countable]

[Date: 1100-1200; Language: Old Norse; Origin: vönd]

1. a thin stick that you hold in your hand to do magic tricks
wave a (magic) wand (=move a wand about to make something magical happen)
" I can't just wave a magic wand and make it all better.
  2. a tool that looks like a thin stick:
" a mascara wand
- II. wand <sup>2</sup> BrE <sup>2</sup> AmE <sup>2</sup> verb [transitive] to move a small ↑scanner over something or someone:
" We were wanded by security guards before being allowed in.

wand

Freakuency Pack

12500 10721<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 8316<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 7k WAND <sup>1075</sup>

wand <sup>893</sup>

wands <sup>182</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

<sup>628</sup> 22618<sup>893</sup> nn1