

disrepair

[ˌdɪsrɪˈpeə] n

ветхость, обветшалость, плохое состояние; неисправность
 to fall into disrepair - прийти в упадок, обветшать
 the building was in bad disrepair - здание сильно обветшало

disrepair

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

dis·re·pair [ˌdɪsrɪˈpeə] BrE [ˌdɪsrɪˈpeə(r)] ^u NAmE [ˌdɪsrɪˈpeɪ] ^u noun

uncountable

a building, road, etc. that is in a state of disrepair has not been taken care of and is broken or in bad condition

- The station quickly fell into disrepair after it was closed.

Example Bank:

- The building had fallen into disrepair.
- The castle was in such a state of disrepair that they decided not to spend money on it.

disrepair

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

dis·re·pair /ˌdɪsrɪˈpeə$-ˈpeɪ/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [uncountable]

[Word Family: noun: ↑repair, ↑disrepair; adjective: ↑repairable, ↑irreparable; verb: ↑repair; adverb: ↑irreparably]

buildings, roads etc that are in disrepair are in bad condition because they have not been cared for:

- buildings allowed to fall into disrepair
- The castle is in a state of disrepair.

disrepair

Freakuency Pack

12500 10811^{MCW}

15000 12356^{COCA}

RANGE: 10k DISREPAIR ³⁷¹

disrepair ³⁷¹

disrepairs ⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

³⁴⁵ 38574³⁵⁸ nn1

⁵ 387024⁵ nnu

⁴ 451395⁴ vv0

⁴ 453081⁴ vvi