

perm

[pɜ:m] n (сокр. от permanent wave) разг.

перманент (завивка)

to have a perm - сделать перманент

II

[pɜ:m] v разг.

переставлять, перетасовывать [ср. мж. permutation 4]

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

perm

perm [perm perms permed perming] noun, verb BrE [pɜːm] AmE [pɜːrm]

noun

a way of changing the style of your hair by using chemicals to create curls that last for several months

- to have a perm

Word Origin:

1920s: abbreviation of ↑permanent

Example Bank:

- I'm thinking of having a perm.
- You'll just have to let the perm grow out if you don't like it.

verb ~ sth

to give sb's hair a ↑perm

- to have your hair permed
- a shampoo for permed hair

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	perm
	BrE /pɜːm/
	NAme /pɜːrm/
he / she / it	perms
	BrE /pɜːmz/
	NAme /pɜːrmz/
past simple, past participle	permed
	BrE /pɜːmd/
	NAme /pɜːrmd/
-ing form	perming
	BrE /pɜːmɪŋ/
	NAme /pɜːrɪmɪŋ/

Word Origin:

1920s: abbreviation of ↑permanent

perm

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. perm¹ /pɜːm/ noun [countable]

[Date: 1900-2000; Origin: ↑permanent wave]

a process in which you make straight hair curly by using chemicals, or hair that has been treated in this way SYN permanent

American English:

a very curly perm

II. perm² verb [transitive]

1. to make straight hair curly by using chemicals:

- I'm going to have my hair permed.
- her blonde permed hair

2. British English to choose and combine a number of football games from the list given in the ↑football pools in order to try to win money

—perming noun [uncountable]:

a home perming kit

perm12500 10839^{MCW}15000 12727^{COCA}RANGE: 7k PERM 386

perm 222

perms 57

permed 102

perming 5

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

112 62484¹⁴⁶ *nn1*39 107908⁵¹ *np1*16 182636¹⁹ *vv0*6 350924⁶ vvi