

surety['ʃʊ(ə)rɪti] n

1. уверенность
  2. поручительство, гарантия, порука; залог
  3. поручитель, гарант
- to stand surety for smb. - поручиться за кого-л.; брать кого-л. на поруки

surety

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

surety <sup>f290</sup> [surety sureties] BrE ['ʃʊərəti] ⓘ BrE ['ʃʊərəti] ⓘ NAmE ['ʃʊərəti] ⓘnoun countable, uncountable (pl. sureties)(law)

1. money given as a promise that you will pay a debt, appear in court, etc
  - She was granted bail with a surety of $500.
  - They have offered a large amount of money as surety.
2. a person who accepts responsibility if sb else does not pay a debt, appear in court, etc
  - to act as surety for sb
  - She has promised to stand surety for £5 000.

Word Origin:

Middle English (in the sense 'something given to support an undertaking that someone will fulfil an obligation'): from Old French surte, from Latin securitas, from securus 'free from care', from se- 'without' + cura 'care'.

surety

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

surety /'ʃʊərəti, 'ʃʊərəti/ BrE ⓘ AmE ⓘ noun (plural sureties) [uncountable and countable] law

1. someone who will pay a debt, appear in court etc if someone else fails to do so
2. stand surety (for somebody) to be responsible for paying a debt, appearing in court etc if someone else fails to do so
3. money someone gives to make sure that someone will appear in court

surety

Freakuency Pack

12500 10859<sup>MCW</sup>15000 14969<sup>COCA</sup>RANGE: 11k SURETY <sup>170</sup>surety <sup>165</sup>sureties <sup>5</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

<sup>147</sup> 58573<sup>165</sup> nn1