

aground[ə'graʊnd] a predic

1. 1) на мели
to be aground - сидеть на мели
- 2) на мель:
to run /to go/ aground - сесть на мель
2. в затруднительном положении; без денег, на мели
3. редк. на земле
planes aloft and aground - самолёты в воздухе и на земле

aground

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

▪ I. aground BrE [ə'graʊnd] ^ˈ NAmE [ə'graʊnd] ^ˈ adverb

if a ship runs/goes aground, it touches the ground in shallow water and cannot move

- The oil tanker ran/went aground off the Spanish coast.

Word Origin:

[aground] Middle English (in the sense 'on the ground'): from a- 'on' + †ground.

▪ II. aground adjective not before noun

- They plan to refloat the ship now aground on the island of Stroma.

Main entry: †ground_{derived}

aground

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

aground /ə'graʊnd/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ adverb

run/go aground if a ship runs aground, it becomes stuck in a place where the water is not deep enough

aground

Freakuency Pack

12500 10867^{MCW}

15000 12530^{COCA}

RANGE: 11k AGROUND³⁵⁴

aground³⁵⁴

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

294 39310³⁴⁶ rl

8 290499⁸ jj