

temperance[ˈtemp(ə)rəns] n

1. воздержание, сдержанность, умеренность temperance in eating - умеренность в еде
2. трезвость, трезвенность, воздержание от спиртных напитков temperance association /society/ - общество трезвости temperance drink - безалкогольный напиток temperance movement - движение трезвенников temperance hotel - гостиница, где не продаются спиртные напитки

temperance

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

tem·per·ance BrE [ˈtempərəns] [ⓘ] NAmE [ˈtempərəns] [ⓘ] noun uncountable

1. (old-fashioned) the practice of not drinking alcohol because of your moral or religious beliefs
 - The temperance movement was at its peak at the end of the 19th century.
2. (formal) the practice of controlling your behaviour, the amount you eat, etc, so that it is always reasonable

Syn: ↑moderationWord Origin:[temperance] Middle English: from Anglo-Norman French temperaunce, from Latin temperantia ‘moderation’, from temperare ‘restrain’.temperance

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

tem·pe·rance /ˈtempərəns/ BrE [ⓘ] AmE [ⓘ] noun [uncountable][Date: 1300-1400; Language: Latin; Origin: temperantia, from temperare; ⇨ ↑temper²]

1. old-fashioned when someone never drinks alcohol because of their moral or religious beliefs
2. formal sensible control of the things you say and do, especially the amount of alcohol you drink SYN moderation

temperance

Freakuency Pack

12500 10932^{MCW}15000 11605^{COCA}RANGE: 10k TEMPERANCE ⁴⁵²temperance ⁴⁵²temperances ⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

184 33981⁴⁴⁸ *nn1*1 483606⁴ jj