

wavy

[ˈweɪvɪ] a

1. волнообразный, волнистый wavy terrain - волнистая /неровная, холмистая/ местность wavy underlining - подчёркивание волнистой чертой wavy rule - полигр. волнистая линейка
2. вьющийся, волнистый (о волосах)
3. волнующийся, бурный (о море)
4. колеблющийся, изменчивый; неустойчивый wavy breath /respiration/ - прерывистое дыхание
5. текст. извитый (о волокне)
6. тех. рифлёный волнистый

wavy

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

wavy [wavy wavier waviest] BrE [ˈweɪvɪ] ^{adj} NAmE [ˈweɪvɪ] ^{adj} adjective (wavi·er, wavi·est)

having curves; not straight

- brown wavy hair
- a pattern of wavy lines

Example Bank:

- her dark, naturally wavy hair

wavy

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

wavy [ˈweɪvɪ] BrE ^{adj} AmE ^{adj} adjective

1. wavy hair grows in waves
2. a wavy line is smoothly curved

THESAURUS

- bent no longer straight: The knife was bent in the middle. | a bent nail | She kept her head bent so that Josie couldn't see her face.
- twisted having a bent shape that turns around - used especially when something has been damaged or is old and has lost its natural straight shape: a twisted tree trunk | All that was left was a pile of twisted metal. | His knee was all twisted. | a twisted ankle
- curved bent in the shape of part of a circle, especially naturally or because something has been made that way: The bird has a long curved bill. | a curved dagger | The plane's wings are curved.
- warped bent or twisted into the wrong shape because of heat or dryness: warped floorboards | The windows are warped and won't open anymore.
- crooked not straight, but bending sharply in one or more places, especially in a way that looks different from normal or does not look right - of teeth about a part of someone's body, a path, or a picture: He had crooked teeth. | her crooked nose and long thin face | The boys at school used to make fun of me because I have a crooked spine. | The picture looks crooked - can you move it up on the left? | a crooked path | the narrow crooked streets of the financial district
- wavy having smooth bends in it, usually in a regular pattern - used about hair or lines: her brown wavy hair | The pictures were separated by a thin wavy line.

wavy

Frequency Pack

12500 11029^{MCW}
15000 8968^{COCA} RANGE: 10k WAVY ⁸⁹⁸
wavy ⁸⁸⁴
wavier ¹⁰ waviest ⁰
waviness ⁴
COCA 500k Unlemmatized
⁷⁶⁹ 22782⁸⁸⁴ jj