

beet

I

[bi:t] n

1. бom. свёкла (Beta vulgaris)
 red beet - свёкла столовая
 white /sugar/ beet - свёкла сахарная beet sugar - свекловичный сахар beet digger /lifter/ - с.-х. свеклоподъёмник beet harvester - свеклоуборочная машина
2. с.-х. снопик соломки льна

II

[bi:t] v дуал.

1. исправлять, чинить
2. помогать
3. разложить (костёр); поддерживать (огонь)

beet

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

beet [bi:t beets] BrE [bi:t] ^u NAmE [bi:t] ^u noun
 countable, uncountable

1. a plant with a root that is used as a vegetable, especially for feeding animals or making sugar
see also ↑sugar beet
2. (NAmE) (BrE beet-root) a plant with a round dark red root that is cooked and eaten as a vegetable
See also: ↑beetroot

Word Origin:

Old English bēte, of West Germanic origin, from Latin beta, perhaps of Celtic origin; related to Dutch beet and German Bete.

beet

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

beet /bi:t/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [uncountable and countable]

[Language: Old English; Origin: bete, from Latin beta]

1. (also sugar beet) a vegetable that sugar is made from
2. American English a plant with a round dark red root that you cook and eat as a vegetable SYN beetroot British English
3. red as a beet American English informal having a red face, especially because you are embarrassed

beet

Freakuency Pack

12500 11309^{MCW}
 15000 6467^{COCA}
 RANGE: 9k BEET 1863
 beet 651
 beets 1193
 beetling 19
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 398 27351⁶⁵¹ nn1