

append

[ə'pend] v

1. прибавлять, добавлять, прилагать (к книге, документу, письму)
to append a list of names [notes, a bibliography] - прилагать список имён [примечания, библиографию]
2. книжн. прикреплять, подвешивать (к чему-л.)
3. канц. прикладывать (печать); ставить (подпись)
to append a signature and a seal to a document - скрепить документ подписью и печатью

append

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ap·pend AW [append appends appended appending] BrE [ə'pend] NA ME

[ə'pend] v verb ~ sth (to sth) (formal)

to add sth to the end of a piece of writing

- Footnotes have been appended to the document.
- The principal has the right to append comments to the final report.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	append
	BrE /ə'pend/
	NA ME /ə'pend/
he / she / it	appends
	BrE /ə'pendz/
	NA ME /ə'pendz/
past simple, past participle	appended
	BrE /ə'pendɪd/
	NA ME /ə'pendɪd/
-ing form	appending
	BrE /ə'pendɪŋ/
	NA ME /ə'pendɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Latin appendere 'hang on', from ad- 'to' + pendere 'hang', from ad- 'to' + pendere 'hang'.

append

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ap·pend AC /ə'pend/ BrE AmE v verb [transitive]

[Word Family: verb: ↑append; noun: ↑appendix]

[Date: 1600-1700; Language: French; Origin: appendre, from Latin appendere 'to weigh', from ad- 'to' + pendere 'to weigh'] formal to add something to a piece of writing ⇒ appendix

append to

The results of the client survey are appended to this document.

append

Freakuency Pack

12500 11392<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 8581<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 7k APPEND 999

append 55

appends 24

appended 227

appending 24

appendage 291

appendages 378

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

<sup>29</sup>144468 vvi

<sup>26</sup>153059 vv0