

traipse

1. [treɪps] n

1. утомительная прогулка
2. неряха

2. [treɪps] v

1. 1) ходить без дела, бесцельно бродить to traipse the fields [the streets] - бродить по полям [по улицам]
to traipse over the country - бродяжничать, бродить по сёлам
- 2) идти, тащиться (по улицам)
to traipse downstairs when the raid-warning goes - тащиться вниз по сигналу воздушной тревоги
2. 1) тащиться; волочиться
- 2) волочить (подол платья и т. п.)

traipse

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

traipse [traipse traipses traipsed traipsing] BrE [treɪps] [ⓘ] NAmE [treɪps] [ⓘ] verb intransitive + adv./prep. (informal) to walk somewhere slowly when you are tired and unwilling

- We spent the afternoon traipsing around the town.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	traipse
	BrE /treɪps/
	NAmE /treɪps/
he / she / it	traipses
	BrE /treɪpsɪz/
	NAmE /treɪpsɪz/
past simple, past participle	traipsed
	BrE /treɪpst/
	NAmE /treɪpst/
-ing form	traipsing
	BrE /treɪpsɪŋ/
	NAmE /treɪpsɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late 16th cent. (as a verb): of unknown origin.

Example Bank:

- I'm not traipsing all that way just to see your sister.
- We spent the afternoon traipsing around art galleries.

traipse

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

traipse /treɪps/ BrE [ⓘ] AmE [ⓘ] verb [intransitive always + adverb/preposition]

[Date: 1500-1600; Origin: Perhaps from Old French trespasser; ⇨ ↑trespass¹]

informal to walk somewhere in a slow or unwilling way because you are tired or bored SYN trail traipse around/through/across etc

- [ⓘ] I've been traipsing around the shops all morning.

traipse

Freakuency Pack

12500 11666^{MCW}

15000 12586^{COCA}

RANGE: 7k TRAIPISE ³⁴⁹

traipse ⁸¹

traipses ⁷

traipsed ⁹⁰

traipsing ¹⁷¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

³⁸ 122048⁴⁰ vvi

³³ 132831³⁴ vv0

⁷ 316670⁷ nn1