

apparel*1. [əˈpærəl] n

1. 1) преим. амер. одежда, предметы одежды

ladies' [children's] apparel - дамская [детская] одежда

ready-made apparel - готовое платье

2) возвыш. одеяние, наряд

rich [gorgeous, seremonious] apparel - богатые [пышные, торжественные] одежды

the bright apparel of spring - яркий весенний наряд (природы)

2. арх. снаряжение

2. [əˈpærəl] v

1. 1) возвыш. облачать, наряжать

he was apparel led in the habit of a Spanish Grandee - он был облачён в наряд испанского гранда

2) украшать

2. арх. снаряжать, оборудовать

apparel

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ap·parel [apparel apparels apparellled appareled apparelling appareling ]

BrE [əˈpærəl] <sup>u</sup> NAmE [əˈpærəl] <sup>u</sup> noun uncountable

1. (especially NAmE) clothing, when it is being sold in shops/stores

• The store sells women's and children's apparel.

2. (old-fashioned or formal) clothes, particularly those worn on a formal occasion

• lords and ladies in fine apparel

Word Origin:

Middle English (as a verb in the sense 'make ready or fit'; as a noun 'furnishings, equipment'): from Old French appareillier, based on Latin ad- 'to' (expressing change) + par 'equal' .

apparel

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ap·par·el /əˈpærəl/ BrE <sup>u</sup> AmE <sup>u</sup> noun [uncountable]

[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: apareil 'preparation', from appareillier, from Latin apparare; ⇒ ↑apparatus]

formal clothes:

<sup>u</sup> She looked lovely, despite her strange apparel.

<sup>u</sup> men wearing protective apparel

<sup>u</sup> We sell a full range of sports apparel.

apparel

Freakuency Pack

12500 11909<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 6369<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 14k APPAREL 1920

apparel <sup>1915</sup>

apparels <sup>5</sup>

apparellled <sup>0</sup>

apparelling <sup>0</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

<sup>1079</sup> 13918<sup>1915</sup> nn1