

infantile[ˈɪnfəntaɪl] a

- 1) детский; младенческий
 infantile diseases /sicknesses/ - детские болезни
 infantile paralysis - детский паралич, полиомиелит
 infantile mortality - детская смертность
 infantile literature - литература для детей дошкольного возраста /для самых маленьких/infantile pastimes - детские развлечения /игры/
 - 2) инфантильный
 infantile mind - инфантильный ум, примитивные умственные способности
2. находящийся на ранней стадии развития

infantile

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

in·fant·ile BrE [ˈɪnfəntaɪl] ^u NAmE [ˈɪnfəntaɪl] ^u adjective

1. (disapproving) typical of a small child (and therefore not suitable for adults or older children)

Syn: ↑childish

- infantile jokes
2. only before noun (formal or technical) connected with babies or very young children

Word Origin:

[infantile] late Middle English: from French, or from Latin infantilis, from infans, infant- ‘unable to speak’, from in- ‘not’ + fant- ‘speaking’ (from the verb fari).

infantile

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

in fan tile /ˈɪnfəntaɪl/ BrE ^u AmE ^u adjective

1. infantile behaviour seems silly in an adult because it is typical of a child SYN childish:
 infantile jokes
2. [only before noun] technical relating to or affecting babies and very young children:
 infantile development

infantile

Freakuency Pack

12500 12210^{MCW}
 15000 12760^{COCA}
 RANGE: 12k INFANTILE ³³¹
 infantile ³³¹
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 259 40334³³¹ jj