

snowfall['snəʊfɔ:l] n

1. снегопад
2. количество осадков в виде снега
there was a snowfall of 5 inches - снега выпало на 5 дюймов

snowfall

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

snow·fall [snowfall snowfalls] BrE ['snəʊfɔ:l] AmE ['snoufɔ:l] noun

countable, uncountable

an occasion when snow falls; the amount of snow that falls in a particular place in a period of time

- a heavy/light snowfall
- an area of low snowfall
- What is the average annual snowfall for this state?

Example Bank:

- We had a light snowfall last night.
- What's the average snowfall for this region?
- the first snowfalls of November
- There had been a heavy snowfall and the cars were almost buried beneath the snow.

snowfall

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

snow·fall /'snəʊfɔ:l/ $ 'snoufɔ:l/ BrE AmE noun [uncountable and countable]

an occasion when snow falls from the sky, or the amount that falls in a particular period of time:

- Heavy snowfalls are forecast.
- an average snowfall of eight inches a year

snowfall

Freakuency Pack

12500 12310^{MCW}15000 9008^{COCA}RANGE: 14k SNOWFALL 889

snowfall 822

snowfalls 67

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

556 23829⁸²² nn1