

roadblock['rəʊdblɒk] n

1. 1) заграждение на дороге
 - 2) засада (на вероятном направлении движения противника)
 - 3) часть, оседлавшая дорогу
 2. дорожная застава; дорожный контрольно-пропускной пункт
 3. помеха, препятствие
- to throw a roadblock - создавать препятствие

roadblock

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

road·block ['rəʊdblɒk] BrE ['rəʊdblɒk] AmE ['rɔʊdblɒk]noun

1. a barrier put across the road by the police or army so that they can stop and search vehicles
 - The police set up a roadblock on the bridge.
2. (NAmE) something that stops a plan from going ahead

Example Bank:

- I was hitting a roadblock in my personal work.
- No sooner had they celebrated their victory than they came up against a new roadblock.
- Police have set up a roadblock on the road to London.
- The company hit its first roadblock last year.
- The proposed merger is already facing potential roadblocks.
- The truck drove through the roadblock at 100 mph.
- They were stopped at a roadblock leaving the city.
- This bill would create a roadblock for women.
- self-defeating relief and other roadblocks to happiness
- The project faces legal roadblocks.

roadblock

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

road·block /'rəʊdblɒk $ 'rɔʊdblɒk BrE AmE noun [countable]

1. a place where the police are stopping traffic → check point:
 - The police have set up roadblocks to try and catch the two men.
2. American English something that stops the progress of a plan:
 - mental roadblocks that get in the way of success

roadblock

Frequency Pack

12500 12402^{MCW}15000 7901^{COCA}RANGE: 12k ROADBLOCK 1203

roadblock 511

roadblocks 692

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

410 31512⁵¹¹ nn1