

cask

1. [kɑːsk] n
 1. бочка; бочонок
 the cask of Danaides - греч. миф. бочка Данаид; бездонная бочка
2. спец. контейнер
 ◇ the cask savours of the first fill - посл. чего в бочке было, тем она и пахнет, ≅ первое прикосновение оставляет неизгладимый след
2. [kɑːsk] v
 1) разливать в бочки
 2) класть в бочонки

cask

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

cask [kɑsk] BrE [kɑsk] AmE [kæsk] noun

a small wooden ↑barrel used for storing liquids, especially alcoholic drinks; the amount contained in a cask

- a wine cask/a cask of wine

Word Origin:

early 16th cent.: from French casque or Spanish casco 'helmet'. The current senses appear only in English; from the late 16th to the late 18th centuries the word also denoted a helmet.

Example Bank:

- The beer was transported in cask.
- a cask of beer
- beer brewed in casks
- The whisky is matured in oak casks for three years.

cask

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

cask /kɑsk/ BrE AmE noun [countable]

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: French; Origin: casque 'helmet', from Spanish casco 'broken piece of a pot, skull, helmet', from cascar 'to break'] a round wooden container used for storing wine or other liquids, or the amount of liquid that it contains SYN barrel:

- a cask of rum

cask

Freakuency Pack

12500 12487<sup>MCW</sup>15000 12379<sup>COCA</sup>RANGE: 12k CASK <sup>373</sup>cask <sup>157</sup>casks <sup>216</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

<sup>107</sup> 61033<sup>153</sup> nn1<sup>4</sup> 445141<sup>4</sup> np1