

1. [waɪn] n

1. 1) (виноградное) вино

green /new/ wine - молодое вино thin wine - плохое вино, «кислятина»

the wine of the country - местное вино

Adam's wine - шутл. вода to take wine with smb. - обменяться тостами; выпить за чьё-л. здоровье; чокнуться с кем-л.

2) наливка

currant wine - смородиновая наливка

made wine - домашняя наливка

2. опьянение

warm with wine - под хмельком

in wine - захмелевший, пьяный

falsus than vows made in wine (Shakespeare) - лживее клятв, данных во хмелю3. что-л. бодрящее или опьяняющее

4. тёмно-красный цвет, бордо

5. унив. жарг. пирушка

to have a wine in one's room - выпить с друзьями у себя в комнате

◇ to put new wine into old bottles - а) библ. вливать молодое /новое/ вино в мехи ветхие /старые/; б) втискивать новое содержание в старую форму

when wine is in, wit /truth/ is out - ≅ дали вина, так и стал без ума good wine needs no ivy bush - ≅ хороший товар не нуждается в рекламе to look on the wine when it is red - а) библ. смотреть на вино, когда оно краснеет; б) пьянствовать2. [waɪn] v разг.

1. выпивать, бражничать

2. поить, угощать вином

to dine and wine smb. - угостить кого-л. на славу

wine

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

wine [wine wines wined wining] noun, verb BrE [waɪn] ^ˈ NAmE [waɪn] ^ˈ noun

1. uncountable, countable an alcoholic drink made from the juice of ↑grapes that has been left to ↑ferment. There are many different kinds of wine

- a bottle of wine
- a glass of dry/sweet wine
- red/rosé/white wine
- sparkling wine

see also ↑table wine2. uncountable, countable an alcoholic drink made from plants or fruits other than ↑grapes

- elderberry/rice wine

3. uncountable (also wine 'red) a dark red colourWord Origin:Old English wīn, of Germanic origin; related to Dutch wijn, German Wein, based on Latin vinum.Example Bank:

- A good selection of wine by the glass was on offer.
- About 60% of Australia's wine is produced in South Australia.
- Add two tablespoons of white wine vinegar.
- Do you drink wine?
- He served a light white wine with the lunch.
- He went to Chile to taste wines.
- I took another bottle from the wine rack.
- I'll have some wine, please.
- Open the wine an hour before the meal to let it breathe.
- Red wine grapes grow well here.
- She took a sip of her wine.
- The restaurant has an extensive wine list.
- The restaurant's house wines are Australian.
- The restaurant's house wines are an Australian Chardonnay and a French red.
- The supermarket holds occasional wine-tasting sessions.
- The waiter went around pouring the wine.
- The waiter went round topping up people's wine.
- The wine flowed freely at the party.
- The wine had gone to his head and he was starting to talk rubbish.
- The winery has been making wine for 25 years.
- The winery has been making wine for a couple of centuries.
- The younger wines will be mature after about three years.

- They always ply their clients with wine before getting down to business.
- We hold occasional wine-tasting sessions.
- Would you like another drop of wine?
- a cheap sour wine
- a farm at the edge of northern California's wine country
- a wine-growing region
- chilled white wine
- fortified wines such as port and sherry
- some new wines from South Africa
- wine aged in the bottle

Idiom: ↑wine and dine

verb

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	wine
	BrE /waɪn/
	NAme /waɪn/
he / she / it	wines
	BrE /waɪnz/
	NAme /waɪnz/
past simple, past participle	wined
	BrE /waɪnd/
	NAme /waɪnd/
-ing form	wining
	BrE /waɪnɪŋ/
	NAme /waɪnɪŋ/

Word Origin:

Old English wīn, of Germanic origin; related to Dutch wijn, German Wein, based on Latin vinum.

wine

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

1. wine¹ S2 W2 /waɪn/ BrE^m AmE^m noun [uncountable and countable]

[Language: Old English; Origin: win, from Latin vinum]

1. an alcoholic drink made from ↑grapes, or a type of this drink:

• a glass of wine

red/white wine

• a bottle of red wine

dry/sweet/sparkling wine

• a dry white wine

2. an alcoholic drink made from another fruit or plant:

• damson wine

• • •

COLLOCATIONS

■ ADJECTIVES/NOUN + wine

- red/white/rosé wine The waiter brought some red wine.
- dry wine (=not sweet) a dry white wine
- sweet wine A slightly sweet wine goes well with smoked duck.
- sparkling wine (=with bubbles of gas in it) The best-known sparkling wine is champagne.
- strong wine (=having a lot of alcohol) This village produces strong wines of good character.
- light wine (=without a lot of alcohol) The wine is light and refreshing.
- fruity wine a fresh and fruity wine made in France
- full-bodied wine (=with a pleasantly strong taste) full-bodied red wines such as claret
- French/Spanish etc wine The restaurant has a wide selection of French wines.
- vintage wine (=good quality wine from a particular year) He was a collector of vintage wines.
- fine wine (=a good and expensive wine) He was a lover of fine wines and good food.
- table wine (=an inexpensive wine to drink with a meal) The vineyard produce table wines for local use.

- the house wine (=ordinary wine that is used in restaurants, in contrast to wines that are sold by the bottle and have the label of a wine produce on them) a glass of the house wine

■ phrases

- a bottle of wine They opened a bottle of wine.
- a glass of wine I poured myself a glass of wine.

II. wine² BrE ² AmE ² verb

wine and dine somebody to entertain someone well with a meal, wine etc:

- Companies spend millions wining and dining clients.

wine

Freakuency Pack

12500 1293^{MCW}

15000 1453^{COCA}

RANGE: 2k WINE ²⁸⁸⁷²

wine ²⁵¹⁰³ wining ⁷⁵

wines ³⁶²³

wined ⁷¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

8930 1710²⁵⁰⁵⁸ nn1

12 208661¹⁵ np1

14 213882¹⁴ jj

9 274896⁹ nnu

7 319039⁷ pph1