

paperwork['peɪpəwɜːk] n

1. канцелярская работа
2. письменная работа
3. проверка документов, письменных работ и т. п.

paperwork

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

paper-work [ˈpeɪpəwɜːk] BrE ['peɪpəwɜːr̩k] NAmE noun

uncountable

1. the written work that is part of a job, such as filling in forms or writing letters and reports
 - We're trying to cut down on the amount of paperwork involved
 - I spent the afternoon doing routine paperwork.
 - a mound/mountain of paperwork
2. all the documents that you need for sth, such as a court case or buying a house
 - How quickly can you prepare the paperwork?

Example Bank:

- He filed the necessary paperwork to establish the club's business name.
- I have a lot of paperwork to get through.
- I need to get this paperwork done by tonight.
- The project involved an enormous amount of paperwork.
- I wish I could spend more time on designing and less time on paperwork.
- She spent the day catching up on the vast mound of paperwork that had built up.
- Teachers are being swamped with paperwork and have no time for lesson preparation.
- The paperwork seems to be in order.
- We can get the necessary paperwork signed tomorrow.
- Who is going to process the paperwork?

paperwork

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

pa-per-work /'peɪpəwɜːk/ -pəwɜːrk BrE AmE noun [uncountable]

1. work such as writing letters or reports, which must be done but is not very interesting:
 - Police work involves so much paperwork these days.
2. the documents that you need for a business deal, a journey etc:
 - I'm leaving the solicitors to sort out the paperwork.

paperwork

Freakuency Pack

12500 1463^{MCW}15000 5036^{COCA}RANGE: 3k PAPERWORK 3071

paperwork 3071

paperworks 0

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2275 10147³⁰¹⁵ *nn1*45 109907⁴⁹ *nnu*7 318629⁷ np1