

transfer*1. [ˈtrænsfɜː] n*1. 1) перенос, перенесение; перемещение

the transfer of meaning - перенос значения (слова) transfer of fire - воен. перенос огня transfer of radioactivity - перенос радиоактивных веществ energy [heat] transfer - перенос /передача/ энергии [тепла]

transfer of population - перемещение населения

2) перенос (знаний из одной области в другую)

transfer of training - применение (приобретённых знаний) в другой области

3) переход

the transfer from book to life is not easy - нелегко применить книжные знания к реальной жизни

2. 1) перевод (по службе) to get a transfer (to smth.) - получить перевод (куда-л.)

to carry out a transfer - оформить перевод (по службе)

transfer to the reserve - воен. перевод в запас

2) тот, кто переводится

a limited number of transfers may be accepted by the college - колледж может принять в порядке перевода ограниченное число студентов

3. 1) передача

technology transfer - передача технологии (развивающимся странам) transfer of control - а) передача управления; б) вчт. команда перехода information /data/ transfer - передача информации

the transfer of a case to another court - передача дела и другой суд

2) предмет передачи*3) юр. уступка, передача (имущества, права и т. п.); цессия transfer of authority - передача прав /полномочий/transfer of ownership - передача права собственности transfer of shares - передача акций transfer of stock - а) амер. передача акций; б) передача облигаций /фондов/transfer deed - акт о передаче

4) трансферт документ о передаче, документ о переводе ценной бумаги с одного лица на другое transfer in blank - бланковый трансферт transfer books - книги для регистрации трансфертов transfer day - день регистрации трансфертов

4. преим. амер. перевод (денежных сумм); перечисление (сумм)

cable /telegraphic/ [mail] transfer - телеграфный [почтовый] перевод

5. преим. амер.*1) пересадочный пункт, пункт пересадки*2) пересадка (на железной дороге и т. п.)

transfer passengers - транзитные пассажиры

3) пересадочный билет

may I have a transfer, please? - дайте мне, пожалуйста, транзитный билет

4) перевозка грузов (с одного склада на другой)*5) паром*6. перевод рисунка и т. п. на другую поверхность*7. pl переводные картинки*8. полигр. зеркальный оттиск*9. перевод красок на холст (при реставрации)*10. тех. переключение*2. [træns'fɜː] v*1. переносить, перемещать; переставлять; переключать; перевозить to transfer a book from a table to a shelf - переложить книгу со стола на полку to transfer a prisoner from one prison to another - перевести заключённого из одной тюрьмы в другую to transfer a name to a different list - перенести фамилию в другой список to transfer one's affections to a new object - переносить свои чувства на другой предмет /-ое лицо/to transfer fire - воен. переносить огонь

a truck will transfer our baggage from the railway station to our home - багаж можно будет перевести с вокзала домой на грузовике

2. 1) переводить (по службе, работе, учёбе и т. п.)

to transfer smb. to another department - перевести кого-л. в другой отдел to transfer an officer to a remote frontier - перевести офицера на отдалённую границу then he is just transferred to some other job - тогда его просто переводят на какую-нибудь другую работу

2) переходить, переводиться (с одной работы на другую)

to transfer to the armoured division - перевестись в бронетанковую дивизию students may transfer to other colleges - студенты могут переходить в другие колледжи

he has transferred from the Navy to the Air Force - он перешёл из флота в авиацию

3. 1) передавать

to transfer information - передавать информацию to transfer the case to another court - передать дело в другой суд to transfer motion from one wheel to another - передавать движение с одного колеса на другое

2) юр. передавать, уступать (имуущество и т. п.) to transfer land - передавать землю другому владельцу to transfer a right to smb. - передать кому-л. своё право (на что-л.)

3) переводить (деньги); перечислять (суммы)

this farm has been transferred from father to son for generations - на протяжении многих поколений эта ферма переходила от отца к сыну

4. делать пересадку, пересаживаться (с одного транспортного средства на другое)

you'll have to transfer at Albany - в Олбани вам нужно будет сделать пересадку

5. (into) преобразовывать; превращать to transfer wastes into fertile fields - преобразовать пустыни в плодородные поля to transfer oneself into a tiger - превратиться в тигра

6. переводить рисунок на другую поверхность, особ. наносить рисунок на литографский камень

transfer

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

trans·fer AW [transfer transfers transferred transferring] verb, noun verb BrE [træns'fɜː(r)]<sup>m</sup> ; NAmE [træns'fɜːr]<sup>m</sup> (-rr-)

TO NEW PLACE

1. intransitive, transitive to move from one place to another; to move sth/sb from one place to another

- ~ (from...) (to...) The film studio is transferring to Hollywood.
- (especially NAmE) If I spend a semester in Madrid, will my credits transfer?
- ~ sth/sb (from...) (to...) How can I transfer money from my bank account to his?
- The patient was transferred to another hospital.
- (especially NAmE) I couldn't transfer all my credits from junior college.

TO NEW JOB/SCHOOL/SITUATION

2. intransitive, transitive to move from one job, school, situation, etc. to another; to arrange for sb to move

- ~ (from...) (to...) Children usually transfer to secondary school at 11 or 12.
- He transferred to UCLA after his freshman year.
- ~ sb (from...) (to...) Ten employees are being transferred from the sales department.

FEELING/DISEASE/POWER

3. transitive, intransitive ~ (sth) (from...) (to...) if you transfer a feeling, a disease, or power, etc, or if it transfers from one person to another, the second person has it, often instead of the first

- Joe had already transferred his affections from Lisa to Cleo.
- I decided to transfer my loyalty to my local team.
- This disease is rarely transferred from mother to baby (= so that the baby has it as well as the mother).

PROPERTY

4. transitive ~ sth (to sb) to officially arrange for sth to belong to sb else or for sb else to control sth

Syn: sign over

- He transferred the property to his son.

IN SPORT

5. intransitive, transitive (especially BrE) to move, or to move sb, to a different sports team, especially a professional football (↑ soccer) team

- ~ (from...) (to...) He transferred to Everton for £6 million.
- ~ sb (from...) (to...) He was transferred from Spurs to Arsenal for a huge fee.

TO NEW VEHICLE

6. intransitive, transitive to change to a different vehicle during a journey; to arrange for sb to change to a different vehicle during a journey

- ~ (from...) (to...) I transferred at Bahrain for a flight to Singapore.
- ~ sb (from...) (to...) Passengers are transferred from the airport to the hotel by taxi.

INFORMATION/MUSIC, ETC.

7. transitive, intransitive to copy information, music, an idea, etc. from one method of recording or presenting it to another; to be recorded or presented in a different way

- ~ sth (from sth) (to sth) You can transfer data to a memory stick in a few seconds.
- ~ (from sth) (to sth) The novel does not transfer well to the movies.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	transfer
	BrE /træns 'fɜ:(r)/
	NAmE /træns 'fɜ:r/
he / she / it	transfers
	BrE /træns 'fɜ:z/
	NAmE /træns 'fɜ:z/
past simple, past participle	transferred BrE /træns 'fɜ:d/
	NAmE /træns 'fɜ:d/
-ing form	transferring
	BrE /træns 'fɜ:rɪŋ/
	NAmE /træns 'fɜ:rɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late Middle English (as a verb): from French transférer or Latin transfere, from trans- 'across' + ferre 'to bear'. The earliest use of the noun (late 17th cent.) was as a legal term in the sense 'conveyance of property'.

Example Bank:

- Assets can be transferred overseas.
- Can the disease be transferred across species?
- Data is easily transferred electronically.
- She transferred the gravy into a gravy boat.
- She transferred the sauce into a china jug.
- Skills cannot be transferred directly from a trainer to a trainee.
- Sovereignty was formally transferred on December 27.
- transferring assets abroad

noun BrE ['trænsfɜ:(r)]<sup>n</sup> ; NAmE ['trænsfɜ:r]<sup>n</sup>

CHANGE OF PLACE/JOB/SITUATION

1. uncountable, countable the act of moving sb/sth from one place, group or job to another; an occasion when this happens

- electronic data transfer
- the transfer of currency from one country to another
- He has asked for a transfer to the company's Paris branch.
- After the election there was a swift transfer of power.

IN SPORT

2. uncountable, countable the act of moving a sports player from one club or team to another

- It was the first goal he had scored since his transfer from Chelsea.
- a transfer fee
- to be on the transfer list (= available to join another club)

CHANGE OF VEHICLE

3. uncountable, countable an act of changing to a different place, vehicle or route when you are travelling

- The transfer from the airport to the hotel is included in the price.

TRAIN/BUS TICKET

4. countable (NAmE) a ticket that allows a passenger to continue their journey on another bus or train

PICTURE

5. countable (especially BrE) (NAmE usually decal) a picture or design that can be removed from a piece of paper and stuck onto a surface, for example by being pressed or heated

PSYCHOLOGY

6. uncountable (psychology) the process of using behaviour which has already been learned in one situation in a new situation

see also ↑language transfer

Word Origin:

late Middle English (as a verb): from French transférer or Latin transfere, from trans- 'across' + ferre 'to bear'. The earliest use of the noun (late 17th cent.) was as a legal term in the sense 'conveyance of property'.

Example Bank:

- Her boss recommended a permanent transfer overseas.
- His club have given him a free transfer.
- I did a file transfer from one PC to another.
- Only the owner can make a transfer of goods.
- The law schools accept a large number of second-year transfer students.
- The war caused a massive transfer of population.
- There has been a net transfer of lower-paid people away from the inner cities.

- data transfer rates of 6.4 GB per second
- the smooth transfer of power to the new government
- the transfer of power/sovereignty
- the transfer of property between private buyers

See also: ↑decal

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

transfer

I. transfer<sup>1</sup> S3 W2 AC /træns'fɜːr/$ -'fɜːrBrE<sup>AmE</sup> verb (past tense and past participle transferred, present participle transferring)

[Word Family: noun: ↑transfer, ↑transference; verb: ↑transfer]

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Latin; Origin: transferre, from ferre 'to carry']

1. MOVE TO DIFFERENT PLACE ETC [intransitive and transitive] to move from one place, school, job etc to another, or to make someone do this, especially within the same organization

transfer (from something) to something

" Swod transferred from MI6 to the Security Service.

transfer somebody (from something) to something

" They're transferring him to a special unit at Great Ormond Street Hospital.

" You'll be transferred to the Birmingham office.

2. PUT SOMETHING IN DIFFERENT PLACE [intransitive and transitive] formal to move from one place to another, or to move something from one place to another

transfer (from something) to something

" The exhibition transfers to York City Art Gallery on 23rd January.

transfer something (from something) to something

" Transfer the meat to warm plates.

3. SPORTS PERSON [transitive] to sell a sports player to another team:

" He was transferred for a fee of £8 million.

4. MONEY [transitive] to move money from one account or institution to another

transfer something (from something) to something

" I'd like to transfer $500 to my checking account.

5. transfer your affections/loyalty/allegiance etc to change from loving or supporting one person to loving or supporting a different one

6. SKILL/IDEA/QUALITY [intransitive and transitive] if a skill, idea, or quality transfers from one situation to another, or if you transfer it, it can be used in the new situation:

" Ideas that work well in one school often don't transfer well to another.

7. transfer power/responsibility/control (to somebody) to officially give power etc to another person or organization:

" The ageing president is preparing to transfer power to his son.

8. PHONE [transitive] to connect the call of someone who has telephoned you to someone else's telephone so that that person can speak to them:

" Hold on one moment while I transfer your call.

9. PROPERTY [transitive] law to officially give property or land to someone else

10. TRAVEL [intransitive and transitive] to change from one bus, plane etc to another while you are travelling, or arrange for someone to do this:

" You will be met on arrival at the airport and transferred to your hotel.

11. INFORMATION/MUSIC [transitive] to copy recorded information, music etc from one system to another:

" Transfer the files onto floppy disk.

12. DISEASE [transitive] if a disease is transferred from one person or animal to another, the second person or animal begins to have the disease SYN pass transfer something (from somebody/something) to somebody/something

" It is unlikely that the disease will be transferred from animals to humans.

—transferable adjective:

" transferable skills

—transferability /træns'fɜːrəbɪlɪti/$ -'fɜːrəbɪlɪti noun [uncountable]

II. transfer<sup>2</sup> W2 AC /'trænsfɜːr/$ -fɜːrBrE<sup>AmE</sup> noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑transfer, ↑transference; verb: ↑transfer]

1.

a) [uncountable and countable] the process by which someone or something moves or is moved from one place, job etc to another transfer of " the transfer of assets within a group of companies

transfer to

" Penny's applied for a transfer to head office.

" electronic data transfer

b) [countable] someone or something that has been moved in this way

2. transfer of power a process by which the control of a country is taken from one person or group and given to another:

" the transfer of power to a civilian government

3. [countable] the act of changing from one bus, aircraft etc to another while travelling:

" Getting there often means a couple of transfers on a bus line.

4. [countable] especially British English a drawing, pattern etc that can be stuck or printed onto a surface SYN decal American

English

5. [countable] especially American English a ticket that allows a passenger to change from one bus, train etc to another without paying more money

transfer

Freakuency Pack

12500 1597<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 1443<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 2k TRANSFER 29088

transfer 17394

transferable 311

transferability 122

transference 265

transferred 6106

transferring 1855

transfers 2967

transferral 20

transferrals 0 transferor 0 transferors 0

transferer 0

transferee 23

transferees 25

transferers 0

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

4889 4053<sup>9921</sup> nn1

2242 7708<sup>4430</sup> vv0

2476 10099<sup>3035</sup> vvi

7 297824<sup>8</sup> nnu