

addicted[ə'dɪktɪd] *a*склонный (часто к дурному); предающийся (чему-л.); постоянно делающий (что-л.) в силу привычки

addicted to drugs - принимающий наркотики

addicted to drink - предающийся пьянству

addicted to brooding - склонный к грустным размышлениям

he was addicted to reading - он пристрастился к чтению /стал читать запоем/

he is addicted to good works - он посвятил себя добрым делам

addicted

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ad·dic·ed BrE [ə'dɪktɪd] [ⓘ] NAmE [ə'dɪktɪd] [ⓘ] adjective not before noun

- ~ (to sth) unable to stop taking harmful drugs, or using or doing sth as a habit
 - to become addicted to drugs/gambling
 - It did not take James very long to get addicted.
- ~ (to sth) spending all your free time doing sth because you are so interested in it
 - He's addicted to computer games.

Word Origin:[addicted] mid 16th cent.: from the obsolete adjective addict 'bound or devoted (to someone)', from Latin addict- 'assigned', from the verb addicere, from ad- 'to' + dicere 'say'.Example Bank:

- She had become addicted to tranquilizers.

addicted

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ad·dic·ed /ə'dɪktəd, ə'dɪktɪd/ BrE [ⓘ] AmE [ⓘ] adjective

- unable to stop taking a harmful substance, especially a drug
 - addicted to
 - 50 million Americans are addicted to nicotine.
- liking something so much that you do not want to stop doing it or having it
 - addicted to
 - kids addicted to surfing the Net

addicted

Freakuency Pack

12500 1825^{MCW}15000 2345^{COCA}RANGE: 3k ADDICT 13318

addict 1835

addicts 1914

addicted 2274

addicting 91

addictive 1512

addiction 5031

addictions 646

nonaddictive 15

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1530 13326²⁰³⁶ *vvn*174 48243²³⁸ jj