

via

1. [ˈvaɪə] n лат.
 путь
 via media - средний путь /курс/
 Via Lactea - асмп. Млечный путь; галактика

2. [ˈvaɪə] prep

1. через; по маршруту через; с заходом в
 via London - через Лондон from Helsinki to London via Hamburg - из Хельсинки в Лондон с заходом в Гамбург (о судне)
2. путём, через посредство, с помощью to make one's views known via a magazine article - высказывать свои взгляды в журнальной статье
 I sent her a message via her sister - я передала ей записку через её сестру

via

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

via AW BrE [ˈvaɪə] ^u NAmE [ˈvaɪə] ^u BrE [ˈviːə] ^u NAmE [ˈviːə] ^u preposition

1. through a place
 - We flew home via Dubai.
2. by means of a particular person, system, etc
 - I heard about the sale via Jane.
 - The news programme came to us via satellite.

Word Origin:

[via] late 18th cent.: from Latin, ablative of via 'way, road'.

via

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

via W2 AC /ˈvaɪə, ˈviːə/ BrE ^u AmE ^u preposition

[Date: 1600-1700; Language: Latin; Origin: 'by way of', from via 'way']

1. travelling through a place on the way to another place:
 - We flew to Athens via Paris.
2. using a particular person, machine etc to send something:
 - I sent a message to Kitty via her sister.
 - You can access our homepage via the Internet.

via

Freakuency Pack

12500 1981^{MCW}

15000 2268^{COCA}

RANGE: 3k VIA 14003

via 14003

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

9717 3001¹⁴⁰⁰³ ii