

recovery1. [rɪ'kʌv(ə)rɪ] n

1. возврат, возвращение себе; получение вновь (утраченного) recovery of stolen property - возвращение /получение обратно/ украденного имущества recovery of lost influence - завоевание утраченного влияния past recovery - безвозвратно потерянный [ср. тж. 2, 1) и 4]

2. 1) выздоровление; исцеление, излечение

the patient is making a good recovery /is on the way to recovery/ - больной быстро поправляется /находится на пути к выздоровлению/

I wish you a speedy recovery to health - желаю вам быстро восстановить своё здоровье

the patient is past recovery - больной неизлечим /безнадёжен/ [ср. тж. 1 и 4]

2) пробуждение (после наркоза); приход в себя (после обморока)

3. оздоровление; оживление; восстановление economic recovery - экономическое восстановление trade [industrial] recovery - оживление в торговле [в промышленности] recovery of business - оживление деловой активности recovery movement - спорт. восстанавливающее /дающее отдых/ движение

4. возмещение

recovery of damages - возмещение ущерба /убытков/recovery in kind - возмещение в натуре

the loss is past recovery - а) ущерб невозместим; б) эту утрату ничем не возместить; [ср. тж. 1 и 2, 1)]

5. 1) восстановительные работы; ремонт, восстановление (техники)

recovery station - воен. ремонтно-восстановительная станция recovery vehicle - воен. а) ремонтно-эвакуационный автомобиль; б) подвижная ремонтная мастерская

2) воен. эвакуация повреждённой техники

3) спасение (исследовательской ракеты, космонавтов и т. п.)

6. 1) взыскание; получение обратно; ком. тж. инкассирование

2) юр. виндикация, взыскание в судебном порядке action for recovery of property - иск о возвращении имущества

3) юр. сумма, взыскиваемая по решению суда

7. возвращение в исходное положение; выпрямление to make a recovery from a fall [from a stumble] - упав, подняться [споткнувшись, удержаться на ногах]

8. горн. извлечение (металла из руды); выход

9. спец. регенерация, рекуперация (энергии); утилизация (отходов)

10. спец. упругая деформация

11. спорт.

1) выдержка (гребля)

2) вынос руки, подтягивание ног (плавание)

3) уход (фехтование)

recovery from the lunge - уход с выпада

12. 1) вывод или выход самолёта из штопора

2) воен. выход из боя

13. возвращение на Землю (космического корабля); вход в плотные слои атмосферы и посадка precision recovery - безопасное снижение в точно намеченную точку

14. астр. возвращение (кометы)

2. [rɪ'kʌv(ə)rɪ] a косм.

возвращаемый (об аппарате)

recovery

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

re-cov-ery AW [recovery recoveries] BrE [rɪ'kʌvərɪ] NAmE [rɪ'kʌvərɪ] noun

(pl. re-cov-eries)

1. uncountable, countable, usually singular ~ (from sth) the process of becoming well again after an illness or injury

• My father has made a full recovery from the operation.

• to make a remarkable /quick/speedy/slow, etc. recovery

• She is on the road to (= making progress towards) recovery .

2. uncountable, countable, usually singular ~ (in sth) the process of improving or becoming stronger again

• The government is forecasting an economic recovery .

• a recovery in consumer spending

• The economy is showing signs of recovery.

3. uncountable ~ (of sth) the action or process of getting sth back that has been lost or stolen

• There is a reward for information leading to the recovery of the missing diamonds.

4. uncountable (also re'covery room countable) the room in a hospital where patients are kept immediately after an operation

• Your mother is now in recovery.

Word Origin:

late Middle English (denoting a means of restoration): from Anglo-Norman French recoverye, from recover 'get back' .

Example Bank:

• A holiday would speed his recovery.

- A recovery will come only when deflation is conquered.
- After the operation she was taken to the recovery room.
- Continue resuscitation until the person starts breathing and then place them in the recovery position.
- He's in recovery from the disease.
- His injuries have returned as there was insufficient recovery time between games.
- Laura made a miraculous recovery.
- Many people make remarkable recoveries after strokes.
- Mr Fisher made a full physical recovery.
- She is well on the road to recovery.
- The FTSE index staged a modest recovery to be 6.5 points down.
- The company has made a substantial recovery over the past 12 months.
- The economic circumstances are right and recovery is on the way.
- The economy is showing the first signs of recovery.
- The global economic recovery has strengthened significantly.
- The region has been damaged by acid rain and rivers are fouled almost beyond recovery.
- The world economy staged a strong recovery.
- There is a robust recovery in the markets.
- There is no hope of recovery.
- Unemployment is high and economic recovery is still a long way off.
- We wish them all a speedy recovery.
- a disaster recovery plan
- a reduction in interest rates to stimulate global economic recovery
- a slow recovery to full health
- recovery from his illness
- the prospects of economic recovery
- the recent recovery in consumer spending
- The government is forecasting an economic recovery.
- to make a remarkable/quick/speedy recovery

recovery

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

recovery W3 AC /rɪ'kʌvəri/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun

[Word Family: verb: ↑recover; noun: ↑recovery]

1. [singular, uncountable] the process of getting better after an illness, injury etc

make a full/good/remarkable etc recovery

Doctors expect him to make a full recovery.

recovery from

Ann made a quick recovery from her operation.

2. [singular, uncountable] the process of returning to a normal condition after a period of trouble or difficulty:

Hopes of economic recovery are fading.

3. [uncountable] when you get something back that has been taken or lost recovery of the recovery of the stolen money

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 1)

■ verbs

- make a recovery She has since made a complete recovery.
- speed (up) sb's recovery (=make them recover more quickly) She believes that a holiday would speed my recovery.
- aid sb's recovery (=help someone to recover) Although it is not a cure, the drug can aid recovery.

■ adjectives

- a full/complete recovery She was severely injured but made a full recovery.
- a good/satisfactory recovery He is making a good recovery from a knee injury.
- a remarkable /amazing /miraculous recovery Doctors have every confidence that Laura will continue her remarkable recovery.
- a speedy/quick/swift recovery We wish him a speedy recovery.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 2)

■ adjectives

- an economic recovery The U.S. is showing solid signs of an economic recovery.
- a sustained recovery (=that continues for a long time) Will these policies provide a basis for sustained recovery and sustained growth?
- a modest recovery (=not very great) On the foreign exchanges the pound managed a modest recovery from Thursday's slump.
- a slow recovery A slow recovery in the hotel market is likely to hold back the company's profits.

recovery

Freakuency Pack

12500 2294^{MCW}

15000 1354^{COCA}

RANGE: 2k RECOVER ³¹⁷¹⁶

recover ⁶⁵⁴⁴

recoverable ²²⁹

irrecoverable ²⁸

recovered 6311

recovering 3440

recovers 594

recovery 14570

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

7600 2910¹⁴⁵³⁹ nn1

25 140094³¹ nnu
