

educator

[ˈedʒəkɪtə] n

1. преподаватель, учитель; педагог, воспитатель
2. деятель в области образования, просвещения
3. образовательный или воспитательный фактор

educator

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

edu-ca-tor [educator educators] BrE [ˈedʒukeɪtə(r)] AmE [ˈedʒukeɪtər]

noun (formal)

1. a person whose job is to teach or educate people
 - adult educators (= who teach adults)
 2. (especially NAmE) a person who is an expert in the theories and methods of education
- see also ↑educationalist

Example Bank:

- Leavis was a major critic and an influential educator.
- Modern educators prefer a different approach to the teaching of reading.
- The video is being used by health educators in remote areas.
- There are many challenges facing adult educators today.
- We have a wealth of resources for teacher educators.

educator

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ed|u|ca|tor /ˈedʒukeɪtə $ ˈedʒəkeɪtər/ BrE AmE noun [countable]

[Word Family: noun: ↑education, ↑educationalist, educationist, ↑educator; adjective: ↑educated ≠ ↑uneducated, ↑educational, ↑educable ≠ ↑ineducable, ↑educative; verb: ↑educate; adverb: ↑educationally]

1. formal a teacher or someone involved in the process of educating people
2. American English an ↑educationalist

THESAURUS

- teacher someone who teaches as their job, especially in a school: a high school teacher
- principal (also headteacher British English) the teacher who is in charge of a school or college: The teacher sent him to the principal's office.
- tutor someone who gives private lessons to one student or a small group of students. In Britain, a tutor is also a teacher in a university: They hired a tutor to help him with his English. | Your tutor will help you find a subject for your essay.
- lecturer someone who teaches in a university or college: University lecturers aren't very well paid.
- professor a teacher in a college or university. In Britain, a professor is a high-ranking university teacher, especially one who is head of a department: She was professor of linguistics at Cambridge University.
- instructor someone who teaches a sport or a practical skill such as swimming or driving: He works as a ski instructor in the winter. | a driving instructor
- coach someone who helps a person or team improve in a sport: a professional tennis coach
- educator especially American English formal someone whose job involves teaching people, or someone who is an expert on education: Most educators agree that class sizes are still too big.
- trainer someone who teaches people particular skills, especially the skills they need to do a job: a teacher trainer | Many companies pay outside trainers to teach management skills to their staff.
- governess a woman who lived with a family and taught their children in past times: As a governess, Charlotte Brontë received twenty pounds a year.

educator

Freakuency Pack

12500 2499^{MCW}

15000 254^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k EDUCATE 179483

- educate 4426
- educating 2263
- educates 203
- educated 7658
- educative 98
- miseducated 4
- educator 3047
- educators 13373
- uneducated 669
- education 120350
- educationist 10
- educationists 19
- educational 26945
- educationally 412
- educationalist 0
- educationalists 6

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1804 10424²⁹⁰⁹ nn1
96 67053¹²⁷ np1
11 245302¹¹ nnu
