

lakeI [leɪk] n

озеро

the Great Lake - Атлантический океан

the Great Lakes - Великие озёра (Верхнее, Гурон, Мичиган, Эри и Онтарио)

the Lakes = Lake Country

II

[leɪk] n

красочный лак

lake

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

lake [lake lakes] BrE [leɪk] ^ɹ NAmE [leɪk] ^ɹ noun (abbr. L.)

a large area of water that is surrounded by land

- We swam in the lake.
- Lake Ontario
- (figurative) a wine lake (= a large supply of wine that is not being used)

Word Origin:late Old English (denoting a pond or pool), from Old French lac, from Latin lacus 'basin, pool, lake'.Thesaurus:lake noun C

- Let's go for a swim in the lake.

reservoir • • loch • • lagoon • • pond • • pool • • waters •(a) deep lake/reservoir/loch/lagoon/pond/pool/watersthe edge/surface/bottom/middle of the lake/reservoir/loch/lagoon/pond/poolExample Bank:

- A ferry takes people across the lake.
- Carp live in the lake.
- She fell into the lake.
- There is a cafe on the other side of the lake.
- We had a holiday at Lake Como.
- We spent a weekend at Lake Crystal.
- We walked around the lake.
- We went boating on the lake
- You should cross the lake before nightfall.
- a cottage on the lake
- a hill overlooking the lake
- Do you want to go for a swim in the lake?
- We stayed in a hotel on the edge of Lake Ontario.

lake

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

lake S3 W3 /leɪk/ BrE ^ɹ AmE ^ɹ noun[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: lac, from Latin lacus]1. [countable] a large area of water surrounded by land:

Lake Michigan

2. wine/milk etc lake British English a very large amount of wine, milk etc that has been produced but is not needed or used ⇒ mountain 3

...

THESAURUS

- lake a large area of water surrounded by land: Lake Michigan | We went for a swim in the lake.
- lagoon an area of water that is separated from the sea by rocks, sand, or [↑]coral: a tropical lagoon | coastal lagoons
- loch in Scotland, a lake or an area of sea water that is almost completely surrounded by land: Loch Ness | a sea loch
- reservoir a lake, especially an artificial one, where water is stored before it is supplied to people's houses: The reservoirs supply water to Greater Manchester.
- pond a small area of fresh water that is smaller than a lake, which is either natural or artificially made: There were several ducks on the village pond.
- pool a small area of still water in a hollow place: a pool of water near the summit of the mountain | a rockpool (=a pool in some rocks near the sea)
- puddle a very small area of water on the ground, especially after it has been raining: She turned quickly to avoid stepping in a puddle.
- waterhole a small area of water in a dry country, where wild animals go to drink: The waterhole is used by elephants.

lake

Freakuency Pack

12500 2530^{MCW}

15000 1869^{COCA}

RANGE: 3k LAKE 20532

lake 15622

lakes 4910

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

4906 3288¹²⁶⁷⁴ nn1

1096 12645²²⁰⁷ nnl1

351 25921⁷¹⁴ np1

8 210325¹⁵ jj

8 238223¹² nnu