

report*1. [rɪˈpɔ:t] n*1. 1) доклад; сообщение; отчёт (тж. для прессы)

final report - окончательный доклад interim [preliminary] report - промежуточный [предварительный] доклад progress report - а) доклад о достигнутых результатах /о ходе работы/; б) информ. промежуточный отчёт weather report - бюллетень погоды; метеорологическая сводка a report on smth. - доклад /отчёт/ о чём-л.

we have received a favourable report on his work - мы получили благоприятный отзыв о его работе to present /to submit/ a report - предоставить доклад /отчёт/ [ср. тж. 3)] to draw up a report on an accident - составить протокол о происшествии

2) сообщение, известие (в печати и т. п.)

a news report - газетное сообщение first-hand report - сообщение из первых рук; сообщение очевидца to publish a report of a trial - опубликовать отчёт о судебном процессе

3) воен. донесение; рапорт, докладto submit a report - представлять донесение [ср. тж. 1)]4) запись судебных решений*5) pl сборник судебных решений (тж. law reports)*2. молва, слух idle reports - пустые разговоры /слухи/

the report goes, report has it - ходит слух, говорят to know of smth. by mere report - знать о чём-л. только по слухам /понаслышке/

it is a matter of current report - об этом говорят /знают/ все

3. репутация, слава

to be of good [of evil /of ill/] report - иметь хорошую [плохую /дурную/] репутацию

4. табель успеваемости

terminal report - табель успеваемости за семестр

5. звук взрыва, выстрела

◇ to be on report - подлежать дисциплинарному взысканию

2. [rɪˈpɔ:t] v*1. 1) сообщать; рассказывать; описывать to report an accident to the police - сообщить о происшествии в полицию

he reported what he had seen - он сообщил о том, что видел

the doctor reports a marked improvement - доктор говорит, что есть заметное улучшение it is reported - а) сообщают; it is reported from Paris - из Парижа сообщают; б) говорят; it is reported that we are to have a new teacher - говорят, что у нас будет новый преподаватель; he is reported to be in Paris - сообщают, что он в Париже

2) делать официальное сообщение, заключение; докладывать; представлять отчёт to report to a superior - докладывать начальнику to report a vessel at the custom house - дать сведения таможене о судне, команде и грузе

the Commission reports tomorrow - комиссия делает доклад завтра

I have the honour to report - имею честь сообщить

nothing to report - никаких происшествий

3) воен. докладывать; доносить to report clear - докладывать об отсутствии противника to report oneself sick - докладывать о своей болезни

2. 1) составлять, помещать отчёт (в газете); давать репортаж to report a speech [a meeting] - дать репортаж о выступлении [о собрании]

2) работать репортёром или корреспондентом

to report for a newspaper - работать репортёром в газете for two sessions he reported for the "Daily Mirror" - в течение двух парламентских сессий он давал материалы для газеты

«Дейли миррор»

3. передавать услышанное

report my words to him - передайте ему мои слова

4. 1) жаловаться (на кого-л.); выставить обвинение to report to a superior - жаловаться начальнику to report a rudeness - жаловаться на грубость to report smb. for insolence - жаловаться на чью-л. дерзость

I'm reporting you to the police for dangerous driving - я заявляю на вас в полицию за неосторожное управление автомобилем/за опасную езду/

2) (оп, проп, of) отзываться to report on /проп, of/ smb., smth. - отзываться о ком-л., чём-л.

to report well [badly] on smb. - хорошо [плохо] отзываться о ком-л.

he is badly reported on - о нём поступают плохие отзывы

he reports well of the scheme - он дал благоприятный отзыв /-ное заключение/ о плане

5. являться, прибывать (куда-л.)

to report to the port authorities - явиться в управление порта to report to one's unit - воен. явиться в свою часть to report for duty - явиться на службу

Corporal Smith reporting for duty, Sir! - воен. капрал Смит прибыл за распоряжениями, сэр!
 to report to the police - зарегистрироваться в полиции to report oneself - а) заявить о своём прибытии; report yourself to the manager - пойдите доложите управляющему; б) спорт. являться (на соревнование) he reported for work a few minutes before the night shift went on - он явился на работу за несколько минут до начала ночной смены

6. (to) подчиняться; находиться в подчинении или ведении
 the commissioner reports directly to the minister - комиссар подчиняется непосредственно министру ◇ to report progress - а) сообщать о положении дел; б) парл. прекращать прения по законопроекту; в) откладывать (что-л.) to move to report progress - парл. внести предложение о прекращении дебатов to report a bill - парл. докладывать законопроект в парламенте перед третьим чтением

report

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

re·port [report reports reported reporting] verb, noun BrE [rɪˈpɔːt] NAmE

[rɪˈpɔːt]

verb

GIVE INFORMATION

1. transitive, intransitive to give people information about sth that you have heard, seen, done, etc

- ~ sth (to sb) The crash happened seconds after the pilot reported engine trouble.
- The findings are similar to those reported in previous studies.
- Call me urgently if you have anything to report.
- The company is expected to report record profits this year.
- ~ (on sth) (to sb) The committee will report on its research next month.
- ~ (sb/sth) doing sth The neighbours reported seeing him leave the building around noon.
- ~ sb/sth + adj. The doctor reported the patient fully recovered
- ~ sb/sth as sth/as doing sth The house was reported as being in excellent condition.
- be reported to be/have sth The house was reported to be in excellent condition.
- She was reported by the hospital spokesman to be making excellent progress.
- ~ (that)... Employers reported that graduates were deficient in writing and problem-solving skills.
- ~ what, how, etc... She failed to report what had occurred.
- + speech 'The cabin's empty,' he reported back.

NEWS/STORY

2. transitive, intransitive to present a written or spoken account of an event in a newspaper, on television, etc

- ~ sth The stabbing was reported in the local press.
- it is reported that... It was reported that several people had been arrested.
- ~ that... The TV news reported that several people had been arrested.
- ~ (on sth) She reports on royal stories for the BBC.

3. be reported transitive used to show that sth has been stated, and you do not know if it is true or not

- ~ to do sth She is reported to earn over $10 million a year.
- ~ as doing sth The President is reported as saying that he needs a break.
- it is reported that... It was reported that changes were being considered.

CRIME/ACCIDENT, ETC.

4. transitive to tell a person in authority about a crime, an accident, an illness, etc. or about sth bad that sb has done

- ~ sth (to sb) Have you reported the accident to the police yet?
- a decrease in the number of reported cases of AIDS
- ~ sb (to sb) (for sth/for doing sth) She threatened to report him to the authorities for hunting without a licence.
- He's already been reported twice for arriving late.
- I'm going to report you if you do that again!
- ~ sb/sth + adj. She has reported her daughter missing.

ARRIVE

5. intransitive ~ (to sb/sth) (for sth) to tell sb that you have arrived, for example for work or for a meeting with sb

- You should report for duty at 9.30 a.m.
- All visitors must report to the reception desk on arrival

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	report
	BrE /rɪˈpɔːt/
	NAmE /rɪˈpɔːrt/
he / she / it	reports
	BrE /rɪˈpɔːts/
	NAmE /rɪˈpɔːrts/
past simple, past participle	reported
	BrE /rɪˈpɔːtɪd/
	NAmE /rɪˈpɔːrtɪd/
-ing form	reporting
	BrE /rɪˈpɔːtɪŋ/
	NAmE /rɪˈpɔːrtɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Old French reporter (verb), report (noun), from Latin reportare 'bring back', from re- 'back' + portare 'carry'. The sense 'give an account' gave rise to 'submit a formal report', which led to 'inform an authority of one's presence' (sense 5, mid 19th cent.) and 'be accountable to a superior' (late 19th cent.).

Thesaurus:

report verb

1. I, T

- The pilot reported engine trouble soon after take-off.

tell • • fill sb in • • inform • • brief • |formal notify • |especially written humorous enlighten • report/tell sb/inform sb/brief/notify sbsb that...

report/fill sb in/brief sb/enlighten sb on sth

report/tell sb/inform sb/notify sb officially/immediately

2. T, I

- The stabbing was reported in the local press.

tell • • describe • • cover • |formal recount • • relate • • chronicle • report/tell/describe/recount/relate what/how...

report/recount/relate that...

report/describe/cover/recount/relate/chronicle events/a series of events

Example Bank:

- Companies are sometimes reluctant to report economic espionage.
- He was charged with careless driving and failing to report an accident.
- I am pleased to report that the plan is going well.
- I am sad to report that she is not very well.
- It is with regret that I have to report the death of one of our members.
- Report the theft to the police as soon as possible.
- She had dutifully reported this to her superiors.
- The incident was widely reported in the British press.
- The reconnaissance party reported back that the town was heavily fortified.
- This is Dan Baker, reporting for duty.
- This is John Hutchins, reporting from Zimbabwe.
- Tonight we report on the situation in central Africa.
- if the facts that have been reported publicly are true
- Reporting restrictions on the trial have been lifted.

Idiom: ↑of bad report

Derived ↑report back ▪ ↑report to somebody noun

OF NEWS

1. ~ (on/of sth) a written or spoken account of an event, especially one that is published or broadcast

- Are these newspaper reports true?
- And now over to Jim Muir, for a report on the South African election.
- a weather report

INFORMATION

2. ~ (on sth) a spoken or written description of sth containing information that sb needs to have

- a police/medical report
- Can you give us a progress report?

OFFICIAL STUDY

3. ~ (on sth) an official document written by a group of people who have examined a particular situation or problem

- The committee will publish their report on the health service in a few weeks.

STORY

4. a story or piece of information that may or may not be true

- I don't believe these reports of UFO sightings.
- There are unconfirmed reports of a shooting in the capital.

ON STUDENT'S WORK

5. (BrE) (NAme re'port card) a written statement about a student's work at school, college, etc

- a school report
- to get a good/bad report

EMPLOYEE

6. (BrE, business) an employee whose work is the responsibility of a particular manager

- a weekly meeting with my direct reports

- He was finding one of his reports very difficult to manage.

OF GUN

7. the sound of an explosion or of a gun being fired

Syn: †bang, Syn: †blast

- a loud report

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Old French reporter (verb), report (noun), from Latin reportare 'bring back', from re- 'back' + portare 'carry'. The sense 'give an account' gave rise to 'submit a formal report', which led to 'inform an authority of one's presence' (sense 5, mid 19th cent.) and 'be accountable to a superior' (late 19th cent.).

Thesaurus:

report noun

1. C

- Are these newspaper reports true?

story • account • bulletin • item • version • |especially BrE commentary •

a/an report/story/bulletin/item about sth

a/an report/story/account/item/version is based on sth

give a report/an account/your version/a commentary

2. C

- Can you give us a progress report?

statement • return • in a/the report/statement/return an annual report/statement/return a monthly/quarterly/financial report/statement

prepare /complete /do/submit/file a report/return

3. C

- He commissioned a report on the health service.

study • review • survey • investigation •

a/an report/survey/investigation into sth

a/an government /official /independent report/study/review/survey/investigation commission a report/study/review/survey

publish/receive /read a report/study/review/survey/investigation

4. C

- There are unconfirmed reports of a shooting in the district.

talk • |BrE rumour • |AmE rumor • |formal hearsay • |disapproving scandal • gossip •

the reports/talk/rumours/hearsay/scandal/gossip about sb/sth reports/talk/rumours/gossip that...

hear/believe reports/talk/rumours/gossip

deny/confirm reports/rumours

Synonyms:

report

story • account • version

These are all words for a written or spoken account of events.

report • a written or spoken account of an event, especially one that is published or broadcast: ▫ Are these newspaper reports true?

story • an account, often spoken, of what happened to sb or of how sth happened; a report of events in a newspaper, magazine or news broadcast: ▫ It was many years before the full story was made public. ◇ the front-page story account • a written or spoken description of sth that has happened: ▫ She gave the police a full account of the incident.

report or account?

A report is always of recent events, especially news. An account may be of recent or past events.

version • a description of an event from the point of view of a particular person or group of people: ▫ She gave us her version of what had happened that day.

a report/story about sth

a brief/short report/story/account

a full report/story/account/version

a news report/story to give a(n) report/account/version

Example Bank:

- According to this evening's weather report, there will be snow tomorrow.
- Auditors normally issue a report as to whether the company accounts have been prepared correctly.
- Criticism has been directed at local businesses in a report out today.
- First reports of the accident are coming in.
- Following discussion, the annual report was accepted unanimously.
- Her report questions the scientific validity of the experiment.
- I based my statement on reports circulating at the time.

- I typed up a report about the morning's events for our clients.
- I will have to make a full report of the situation to my superiors.
- I'll let you have a report as soon as I can.
- Our correspondent in Kabul files a report most days.
- Reliable intelligence reports suggest that the terrorists have bases in five cities.
- Reports have indicated that a growing number of medium-sized companies are under financial pressure.
- She got a better report card this time.
- The MPs called for a full report on the nuclear contract.
- The case has not yet been reported in the law reports.
- The chairman's report provides a summary of operations.
- The committee presented its report to the Attorney General.
- The department has launched a report into the bombing.
- The findings are summarized in the report.
- The government commissioned a report on the state of agriculture in the country.
- The pro-democracy rally came amidst reports of dissatisfaction among army officers.
- The report admits to several outstanding questions about the safety of the waste dumps.
- The report called for sweeping changes in the education system.
- The report continued in similar vein.
- The report draws attention to the appalling conditions in the country's prisons.
- The report fails to explain his decision.
- The report looks at the health risks linked to obesity.
- The report notes evidence that secondary smoke from other people's cigarettes harms unborn children.
- The report notes evidence that secondary smoke harms unborn children.
- The report warns that more job losses are likely.
- The report went on to list her injuries.
- The riots could have been avoided, a report revealed yesterday.
- The riots had been sparked off by police mishandling of a case, a report revealed yesterday.
- The sites generate detailed travel reports.
- There have been conflicting reports on the number of people killed.
- There have been many new findings since the original report.
- These reports surfaced throughout the summer.
- They could neither confirm nor deny reports that the chairperson was to be replaced.
- They replied citing a report from the finance department.
- This report is based on the analysis of 600 completed questionnaires.
- We have reviewed all reports from today's battle.
- We'll have a live report from Manila in about 30 minutes.
- We're investigating reports of an explosion in this area.
- We've had reports of a gang shooting in the city.
- a confidential report leaked to the press
- a damaging internal report on the department's organization
- a report by scientists
- a report entitled 'Kick-start'
- a report from the select committee
- a report linking ill health with industrial pollution
- a report to the academic community
- an official report on the accident
- daily status reports as to how and what we were doing
- fired for falsifying an expense report
- investigative news reports about glitches in the system
- the company's summary report for the second quarter of this year
- the consumer report for this 1993 model
- the government's latest employment report
- unconfirmed reports of a shooting in the capital
- A detailed medical report is required of all applicants.
- An independent report highlighted some serious flaws in the child protection services.
- An official report quoted several leading scientists.
- I don't believe these reports of UFO sightings.
- I have to do a report for my boss by tomorrow.
- I've asked Jen for a full report of the meeting.
- Police are still trying to come to terms with the report, which examined racial attitudes within the force.
- Police received reports of drug dealing in the area.
- Sentencing will be delayed until a psychiatric report is carried out.
- She made her report to her senior colleagues.
- The autopsy report revealed that the man had been strangled.
- The committee will publish their report on the health service in a few weeks.
- The company was asked to submit its annual report.
- The government commissioned a report into the rioting.
- The lab report seems to be missing.
- The report's authors have asked for more time to complete their enquiries.
- Very few people in government actually read the report.

- We will have to wait until they deliver their report before we can come to any conclusions.
- You will need to compile a report on your findings.

report

I. report<sup>1</sup> S2 W1 /rɪˈpɔːt/ BrE AmE noun [countable]

[Word Family: noun: ↑report, ↑reporter, ↑reportage, ↑reporting; verb: ↑report; adverb: ↑reportedly; adjective: ↑unreported]

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: reporter 'to report', from Latin reportare, from portare 'to carry']

1. a written or spoken description of a situation or event, giving people the information they need ⇒ account report of/on/about

Colleges have to provide a written report on the progress of each student during the year.

2. a piece of writing in a newspaper about something that is happening, or part of a news programme ⇒ reporter:

According to recent news reports, two of the victims are Americans.

report on/of media reports of the food shortages

3. an official document that carefully considers a particular subject

report on

a recent report on child abuse

4. information that something has happened, which may or may not be true report of

Police received reports of a bomb threat at the airport at 11:28 p.m.

Government officials have denied reports of rebel advances.

report that

a report that he had been killed

5. British English a written statement by teachers about a child's work at school, which is sent to his or her parents SYN report card American English

6. British English someone who works for a particular manager:

Only Gordon's direct reports are attending the course.

7. formal the noise of an explosion or shot:

a loud report

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 1)

■ verbs

- write a report Her social worker has written a report on the case.
- make a report We make regular progress reports to our manager.
- give a report (=make a report, usually a spoken one) He came to the office to give his report in person.
- prepare a report The surveyor will view the property and prepare a full report.
- submit a report formal (=give a written report to someone) Doctors will have to submit weekly reports.
- a report says/states (that) The report said that it would cost another £250 million to repair the damage.

■ ADJECTIVES

- a full/detailed report A full report will be prepared for the next committee meeting.
- an official/formal report Black graduates still face discrimination from employers, according to an official report.
- a written report Mr Thomas asked me to send him a written report.
- a confidential report (=one that only a few people see) He made a confidential report to UN headquarters in New York.
- an autopsy report (also a post-mortem report British English) (=that shows the results of an examination on a dead body to find the cause of death) The autopsy report gave the cause of death as alcohol poisoning.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 4)

■ verbs

- receive a report Amnesty has received repeated reports of violation of detention procedures.
- have a report (=receive one) The police say they had reports of a gang shooting in East London.
- confirm a report A spokesman refused to confirm reports that the aircraft had previously suffered an engine fire.
- deny a report Government officials have denied reports of rebel advances.
- dismiss a report (=refuse to consider it because you believe it is not true) A Treasury official yesterday dismissed the reports as 'pure speculation'.

■ ADJECTIVES/NOUNS + report

- an unconfirmed report (=not yet supported by official information) There are unconfirmed reports that up to 2,000 people have been killed.
- an eyewitness/first-hand report (=from someone who saw what happened) Some were beaten and tortured according to first-hand reports from former prisoners.
- a reliable report On Sunday there were reliable reports of a group of whales off the Devon coast.
- an unofficial report According to unofficial reports, the president had talks with Palestinian leaders.
- conflicting reports (=reports saying very different things) Conflicting reports continued to emerge from the area.
- a misleading report (=likely to make you believe something that is not true) This isn't the first time the industry has published misleading reports based on incomplete data.

II. report<sup>2</sup> S2 W1 BrE AmE verb

[Word Family: noun: ↑report, ↑reporter, ↑reportage, ↑reporting; verb: ↑report; adverb: ↑reportedly; adjective: ↑unreported]

1. NEWS [intransitive and transitive] to give people information about recent events, especially in newspapers and on television and radio ⇒ reporter:

This is Gavin Williams, reporting from the United Nations in New York.

We aim to report the news as fairly as possible.

The incident was widely reported in the national press.

report on

The Times sent her to Bangladesh to report on the floods.

report that

Journalists in Cairo reported that seven people had been shot.

report doing something

Witnesses reported seeing three people flee the scene.

2. be reported to be/do something used to say that a statement has been made about someone or something, but you do not know if it is true => allege :

The stolen necklace is reported to be worth $57,000.

3. JOB/WORK [intransitive and transitive] to tell someone about what has been happening, or what you are doing as part of your job

report (to somebody) on something

I've asked him to come back next week and report on his progress.

4. PUBLIC STATEMENT [transitive] to officially give information to the public:

Doctors have reported a 13% increase in the number of people with heart disease.

5. CRIME/ACCIDENT [transitive] to tell the police or someone in authority that an accident or crime has happened:

I'd like to report a theft.

report something to somebody

All accidents must be reported to the safety officer.

report somebody/something missing/injured/killed

The plane was reported missing.

6. COMPLAIN [transitive] to complain about someone to people in authority report somebody for something

Polish referee Ryszard Wojcik reported two Leeds United players for violent conduct.

report somebody to somebody

Hadley's drinking problem led co-workers to report him to the supervisor.

7. ARRIVAL [intransitive] to go somewhere and officially state that you have arrived report to

All visitors must report to the site office.

All soldiers were required to report for duty (=arrive and be ready for work) on Friday.

8. report sick to officially tell your employers that you cannot come to work because you are ill report back phrasal verb to give someone information about something that they asked you to find out about report back to

The committee has 60 days to report back to Congress.

report back on

Students were asked to report back on their results.

report to somebody phrasal verb to be responsible to someone at work and be managed by them:

He will report to Greg Carr, Boston Technology's chief executive.

• • •

THESAURUS

to officially tell someone

- inform to officially tell someone about something: Do you think we ought to inform the police? | Doctors should inform patients about the possible side effects of any drugs they prescribe.
- announce to tell people publicly and officially about something: The university chancellor announced his resignation on Friday. | It was announced that the company had made a profit of $6 billion.
- report to officially tell someone about something that has happened: She was able to report that the project was nearly finished.
- notify formal to tell someone officially about something that has happened or that is planned to happen: Staff were notified several months in advance that they would be losing their jobs.

report

Freakuency Pack

12500 294<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 178<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 1k REPORT 233170

report 75451

reported 56571

unreported 412

reportedly 6181

reporter 19480

reporters 15413

reporting 16865

reports 42797

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

27709 649<sup>59845</sup> nn1

6965 4161<sup>9663</sup> vvi

4517 6376<sup>5690</sup> vv0

<sup>214</sup>49955<sup>223</sup> nnu
<sup>14</sup>194442<sup>17</sup> np1
<sup>13</sup>222640<sup>13</sup> jj

---