

universal1. [ˌjuːniˈvɜːs(ə)] n*1. спец. универсалия

universals of language, linguistic universals - языковые универсалии

2. филос.

1) (the universal) всеобщее, общее

2) метафизическое бытие

3) «сам», эго

2. [ˌjuːniˈvɜːs(ə)] a1. 1) всеобщий

met with universal applause - встреченный всеобщим одобрением

universal rule - правило, не имеющее исключений

universal suffrage - всеобщее избирательное право

universal and over-all disarmament - всеобщее и полное разоружение

universal agent - генеральный агент /представитель/

2) широко распространённый

a universal practice among primitive people - обычай, широко распространённый среди первобытных людей

war causes universal misery - война приносит всем страдания

television provides universal entertainment - телевидение развлекает широкую публику

3) всемирный

universal importance - мировое значение

universal money - полит.-эк. всемирные деньги

Universal Postal Union - Всемирный почтовый союз

universal gravitation - физ. всемирное тяготение2. 1) универсальный

universal donor - универсальный донор

universal joint - тех. кардан, универсальный шарнир

he has a universal mind - у него универсальный ум

Leonardo da Vinci was a universal genius - Леонардо да Винчи был гением-универсалом

2) лог. универсальный

universal class [sentence] - универсальный класс [-ое высказывание]

universal quantifier - квантор общности

3. филос. мировой

universal spirit - мировой дух

universal cause - а) первопричина; б) бог, творец

universal

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

uni-ver-sal [universal universals] BrE [ˌjuːnɪˈvɜːsəl] NAme [ˌjuːnɪˈvɜːrsəl]adjective*1. done by or involving all the people in the world or in a particular group

• Such problems are a universal feature of old age.

• Agreement on this issue is almost universal

• universal suffrage (= the right of all the people in a country to vote)2. true or right at all times and in all places

• universal facts about human nature

Derived Word ↑ universalityWord Origin:late Middle English: from Old French, or from Latin universalis, from universus 'combined into one, whole', from uni- 'one' + versus 'turned' (past participle of vertere).Example Bank:

• These practices remain universal among the islanders.

• a plan that is universal in scope

• supposedly universal standards

• A representative assembly is a near universal feature of modern democracies.

• Initially there was no universal agreement about what constituted a group.

• The country held its first general election with universal suffrage in 1931.

• The increase in crime has been a universal phenomenon.

• The party wanted to introduce a universal health care system.

• There was universal disgust at what he had done.

universal

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

uni-ver-sal W3 /ˌjuːnɪˈvɜːsəl/ BrE AmE adjective*1. involving everyone in the world or in a particular group:

• free universal health care

• These stories have universal appeal.• a topic of universal interest• a democracy based on universal suffrage (=when every adult has the right to vote)

2. true or suitable in every situation:

a universal truth

—universally adverb

—universality /ˌjuːnɪvɜːsəlɪti/ noun [uncountable]

universal

Frequency Pack

12500 2997^{MCW}

15000 1318^{COCA}

RANGE: 4k UNIVERSE ³³¹⁸⁹

universe ¹⁶⁶⁸¹

universal ¹³²⁵²

universally ¹⁹¹⁰

universality ⁶²⁹

universes ⁷¹⁷

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁷⁶⁰⁷ 3162¹³²³³ jj

⁸ 262632¹⁰ nn1

⁸ 277762⁹ nnu
