

declaration[ˌdeklə'reɪʃ(ə)n] n

1. декларация (документ)
 declaration of rights - декларация прав
 Declaration of Human Rights - Всеобщая декларация прав человека Declaration of Independence - Декларация независимости (1776 г.)
2. 1) объявление, заявление declaration of war - объявление войны declaration of policy - дип. декларация о политике declaration of intention - амер. заявление о приеме в гражданство США declaration of the poll - объявление результатов голосования to make a declaration - сделать заявление
- 2) карт. объявление
- 3) объяснение
 declaration of love - объяснение в любви
 to make a declaration of love - объясниться в любви
- 4) вчт. описание
 array declaration - описание массива
 priority declaration - описание приоритета/приоритетов
3. высказывание
 declaration for [against] smth. - высказывание в пользу [против] чего-л.
4. юр.
  - 1) исковое заявление
  - 2) торжественное заявление свидетеля (без присяги)
  - 3) мотивировочная часть судебного решения
  5. таможенная декларация (мж. customs declaration)

declaration

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

dec-lar-ation [ˌdeklə'reɪʃ(ə)n] n BrE [ˌdeklə'reɪʃn] n NAmE[ˌdeklə'reɪʃn] n

1. countable, uncountable an official or formal statement, especially about the plans of a government or an organization; the act of making such a statement

- to issue/sign a declaration
- the declaration of war
- the Declaration of Independence (= of the United States)
- The declaration asked governments to consider introducing new environmental taxes.

2. countable a written or spoken statement, especially about what people feel or believe

- a declaration of love/faith/guilt

3. countable an official written statement giving information

- a declaration of income
- customs declarations (= giving details of goods that have been brought into a country)
- The company will only provide insurance if the information on the proposal form and declaration is correct and complete.

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Latin declaratio(n), from declarare 'make quite clear', from de- 'thoroughly' + clarare 'make clear'.

Synonyms:statement

comment • announcement • remark • declaration • observation

These are all words for sth that you say or write, especially sth that gives information or an opinion.

statement • something that you say or write that gives information or an opinion, often in a formal way: ▫ A government spokesperson made a statement to the press.

comment • something that you say or write that gives an opinion on sth or is a response to a question about a particular situation: ▫ She made helpful comments on my work.

announcement • a spoken or written statement that informs people about sth: ▫ the announcement of a peace agreement remark • something that you say or write that gives an opinion or thought about sb/sth: ▫ He made a number of rude remarks about the food.

declaration • (rather formal) an official or formal statement, especially one that states an intention, belief or feeling, or that gives information: ▫ the declaration of war observation • (rather formal) a comment, especially one based on sth you have seen, heard or read: ▫ He began by making a few general observations about the report.

comment, remark or observation?

A comment can be official or private. A remark can be made in public or private but is always unofficial and the speaker may not have considered it carefully. An observation is unofficial but is usually more considered than a remark.

a(n) statement/comment/announcement/remark/declaration/observation about sth

a(n) statement/comment/observation on sth

a(n) public/official statement/comment/announcement/declaration to make a(n) statement/comment/announcement/remark/declaration/observation to issue a(n) statement/announcement/declaration

Example Bank:

- All four countries have adopted the declaration against hunting these rare animals.
- The Russian leader received a ringing declaration of support yesterday.
- The government will issue a formal declaration tomorrow.
- a declaration of war
- the UN declaration on Human Rights
- False declaration of hours worked may lead to dismissal.
- She had been waiting for him to make a declaration of love.
- The Declaration of Independence was signed on 4 July 1776 by representatives of the US states.
- The summit has been postponed due to the declaration of war.
- We were asked to sign a declaration to the effect that we were UK citizens.
- a declaration of love/support

declaration

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

dec la ra tion /,deklə'reɪʃən/ BrE <sup>ˈ</sup> AmE <sup>ˈ</sup> noun [uncountable and countable]

1. an important official statement about a particular situation or plan, or the act of making this statement:

- ˈ a ceasefire declaration
- ˈ Under Islamic law it was possible to divorce by simple declaration.

declaration of

- ˈ the declaration of war

2. an official or serious statement of what someone believes

declaration of

- ˈ the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights
- ˈ declarations of undying love

3. a statement in which you officially give information about yourself:

- ˈ a declaration of taxable earnings

• • •

THESAURUS

- statement something that someone says or writes publicly in order to tell people what they intend to do, what their opinion is etc: The President will make a statement to the press this afternoon.
- announcement a public or official statement telling people what has happened or what will happen: The announcement was heard by millions of radio listeners this morning. | The company made an announcement yesterday that Rogers has resigned as managing director.
- declaration an important official statement, especially about what a government or organization intends to do: On the 19th of July a declaration of war was delivered in Berlin. | Independence Hall is where the delegates met to sign the Declaration of Independence and write the Constitution.
- press release an official statement giving information to the newspapers, radio, or television: The singer issued a press release saying that she was too ill to continue with the tour.
- testimony a formal statement saying that something is true, especially one a witness makes in a court of law: The testimony of the two arresting officers was an important part of the prosecution case. | The jury based their decision almost entirely on the testimony of one witness.
- affidavit law a written statement that you swear is true, for use as proof in a court of law: A prison doctor who treated the accused sent an affidavit about his mental state.

declaration

Freakuency Pack

12500 3245<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 1522<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 2k DECLARE 26690

declare <sup>3668</sup>

declaration <sup>3766</sup>

declarations <sup>810</sup> declared <sup>13385</sup>

undeclared <sup>264</sup>

declares <sup>2239</sup>

declaring <sup>2558</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2512 8668<sup>3757</sup> nn1

7 279856<sup>9</sup> nnu