

funeral1. ['fju:n(ə)rəl] n

1. 1) похороны, погребение

quiet funeral - скромные похороны

to attend (at) a funeral - присутствовать на похоронах /на погребении/

2) похоронная процессия

to join the funeral - присоединиться к похоронной процессии

2. амер. заупокойная служба; панихида

3. конец, смерть

◇ it's not my funeral - это не моё дело; это меня не касается

it's your funeral - это ваша забота, это ваше дело

if you get lost, it's your funeral - если вы заблудитесь, пеняйте на себя

2. ['fju:n(ə)rəl] a похоронный, погребальный, траурный

funeral speech - речь на похоронах

funeral pyre /pile/ - погребальный костёр

funeral march - похоронный марш

funeral rites - обряд погребения

funeral urn - погребальная урна; урна с прахом

funeral escort - воен. наряд для отдания последних воинских почестейfuneral

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

fu·ne·ral [funeral funerals] BrE ['fju:nərəl] NAmE ['fju:nərəl] nouna ceremony, usually a religious one, for burying or cremating (= burning) a dead person

• Hundreds of people attended the funeral.

• a funeral procession

• a funeral march (= a sad piece of music suitable for funerals)

| idiom †it's your funeralWord Origin:late Middle English: from Old French funeraille, from medieval Latin funeralia, neuter plural of late Latin funeralis, from Latin funus, funer 'funeral, death, corpse'.Example Bank:

- A clergyman friend of the family conducted the funeral.
- Everyone went back to the house after the service for the funeral gathering.
- He gave the address at her funeral.
- He read out a poem at her funeral.
- His savings were just enough to pay for a respectable funeral.
- She had a simple funeral, as she had requested.
- The dead man's son arranged the funeral.
- The family held a private funeral.
- The funeral was held in St Mary's Church.
- a mass funeral of the victims of the fire
- the flames of the funeral pyre

funeral

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

fu·ne·ral S3 /'fju:nərəl/ BrE ^m AmE ^m noun [countable][Date: 1300-1400; Language: Late Latin; Origin: funeralis, from Latin funus 'funeral']1. a religious ceremony for burying or CREMATING (=burning) someone who has died ⇒ burial, cremation:

" The funeral will be held at St. Martin's Church.

" Hundreds of mourners attended the funeral of the two boys.

" the minister who conducted the funeral service

" Nelson's funeral procession down the Thames

" Ramdas set fire to the funeral pyre.

funeral expenses/costs2. it's your funeral spoken used to warn someone that they, and no one else, must deal with the results of their actionsfuneral

Freakuency Pack

12500 3270^{MCW}15000 2523^{COCA}RANGE: 3k FUNERAL 11615

funeral 10294

funerals 1321

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

4884 3913¹⁰²⁷³ nn1

⁹272645⁹ jj

⁷317607⁷ nnu

⁴399691⁵ np1
