

learning

[ˈlɜːnɪŋ] n

1. изучение, учение
the learning of languages - изучение языков learning did not come easily to him - учение ему давалось нелегко
2. учёность, знания, эрудиция polite /classical/ learning - классическое образование
a man of great learning - человек большой эрудиции
3. 1) дрессировка, обучение (животного); выработка условного рефлекса
2) психол. изменение поведения (человека) путём изменения среды; создание новых навыков направленным тренажом

learning

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

learn·ing BrE [ˈlɜːnɪŋ] NAme [ˈlɜːrnɪŋ] noun uncountable

1. the process of learning sth
 - computer-assisted learning
 - Last season was a learning experience for me.
 - student-centred learning
 - new methods of language learning
- see also ↑distance learning
2. knowledge that you get from reading and studying
 - a woman of great learning

Word Origin:

[learn·ing] Old English leornung (see ↑learn, ↑-ing).

Example Bank:

- The college is dedicated to promoting lifelong learning.
- The dance department's multimedia learning centre/center is equipped with eight laptops.
- The school aims to provide a supportive learning environment
- The whole team has been on a steep learning curve since the project began.
- a child with severe learning difficulties
- a model for effective learning
- institutions of higher learning
- A little learning is a dangerous thing.
- Academic learning may not be seen as particularly useful in some situations.
- Effective teaching inevitably leads to effective learning.
- He is a teacher of great intellect and learning.
- I got my degree through a distance learning program.
- The learning process is slightly different in each individual
- They run special classes for students with learning difficulties.
- They're new to the job and will be on a steep learning curve.
- This is a branch of learning that has been ignored until recently.
- We're trying to introduce more computer-assisted learning.
- You cannot fully understand a subject through rote learning.
- You may get extra help if your child has a learning disability.
- You should be able to facilitate learning more confidently by the end of your course.

learning

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

learn·ing /ˈlɜːnɪŋ/ BrE AmE noun [uncountable]

[Word Family: noun: ↑learner, ↑learning, unlearn; verb: ↑learn; adverb: ↑learnedly; adjective: ↑learned] knowledge gained through reading and study:

• a man of great learning

learning

Freakuency Pack

12500 3493^{MCW}

15000 276^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k LEARN 168660

learn 55012

learned 49044

learner 2055

learners 3712

learning 56114

learns 2499

learnt 224

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

8995 1372³⁰⁶⁴⁸ nn1

14182 1678²⁵⁴⁰⁶ vvg

⁴¹112295⁴⁷ nnu
⁷313793⁷ jj
⁶348737⁶ np1
