

strictly['striktli] *adv*строго, точно и пр. [см. strict]

to define one's terms strictly - точно определить свои условия to correspond strictly to smth. - точно /строго/ соответствовать чему-л.

strictly forbidden/prohibited/ - строго запрещается

strictly speaking - строго говоря

strictly

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

strict-ly ['striktli] BrE ['striktli] AmE ['striktli] *adverb1. with a lot of control and rules that must be obeyed

- She was brought up very strictly .
- The industry is strictly regulated.

2. used to emphasize that sth happens or must happen in all circumstancesSyn: ↑absolutely

- Smoking is strictly forbidden
- My letter is, of course, strictly private and confidential.

3. in all details; exactly

- This is not strictly true.

4. used to emphasize that sth only applies to one particular person, thing or situationSyn: ↑purely

- We'll look at the problem from a strictly legal point of view.
- I know we're friends, but this is strictly business.
- Their relationship is strictly platonic.

Idiom: ↑*strictly speakingstrictly

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

strict-ly /'striktli/ BrE AmE *adverb1. in a way that must be obeyed:

- Alcohol is strictly forbidden on school premises.
- The ban on hunting is not strictly enforced.

2. exactly and completely:

- That isn't strictly true.

3. strictly speaking used to say that something is true if you are going to be very exact and correct about it:

- Strictly speaking, spiders are not insects.

4. only for a particular person, thing, or purpose and no one else:

- This is strictly between us. Nobody else must know.

strictly

Freakuency Pack

12500 3580^{MCW}15000 2255^{COCA}RANGE: 3k STRICT 14177

strict 6949

strictness 146

strictly 5726

strictest 298

stricter 1058

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

5009 6340⁵⁷²² *rr*4 432216⁴ jj