

Hispanic1. [hɪˈspæɪnɪk] n

1. испанец

2. латиноамериканец

the Hispanics - собир. латиноамериканцы the Hispanics have taken over whole areas of the United States - выходцы из Латинской Америки заселили целые районы США

2. [hɪˈspæɪnɪk] a

1. испанский; испаноязычный, испаноговорящий

2. латиноамериканский

the US and its Hispanic neighbours - США и их соседи в Латинской Америке

Hispanic

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

His·pan·ic [Hispanic Hispanics] adjective, noun BrE [hɪˈspæɪnɪk] ^ˈ NAmE[hɪˈspæɪnɪk] ^ˈ*adjective* of or connected with Spain or Spanish-speaking countries, especially those of Latin America

Word Origin:from Latin Hispanicus, from Hispania 'Spain'.noun

a person whose first language is Spanish, especially one from a Latin American country living in the US or Canada

Word Origin:from Latin Hispanicus, from Hispania 'Spain'.Hispanic

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. Hispanic¹ /hɪˈspæɪnɪk/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ adjective[Date: 1500-1600; Language: Latin; Origin: hispanicus, from Hispania 'Spain']from or relating to countries where Spanish or Portuguese are spoken, especially ones in Latin America ⇒ Latino:ˈ *Miami's Hispanic community*ˈ *Hispanic Studies*II. Hispanic² BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun [countable]someone who comes from a country where Spanish or Portuguese is spoken, especially one in Latin America ⇒ Latino, Latina:ˈ In California, Hispanics make up 19.2 percent of the population.