

facultyI
[ˈfæk(ə)lti] n

1. способность, дар

faculty of hearing [of vision] - слух [зрение]

faculty of speech - дар речи

the mental faculties - умственные способности

the faculty of making friends - способность легко заводить друзей to have a great faculty for mathematics - иметь большие способности к математике faculty for saying the right thing - умение говорить всегда кстати faculty of making oneself agreeable - умение нравиться to collect one's faculties - взять себя в руки, прийти в себя

to be in possession of all one's faculties - сохранять все свои умственные и физические способности

2. власть, право (особ. церковное)

II

[ˈfæk(ə)lti] n

1. факультет, отделение

the faculty of law [of medicine] - юридический [медицинский] факультет

the four faculties - богословский факультет, юридический факультет, медицинский факультет и отделение гуманитарных наук

2. профессорско-преподавательский состав (данного факультета в Великобритании, всего университета в США)

faculty member - преподаватель высшего учебного заведения faculty wives - жёны профессоров и преподавателей вузов

3. собр. лица с высшим образованием, принадлежащие к одной профессии

the medical faculty - врачи

the legal faculty - юристы

faculty

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

faculty [faculty faculties] BrE [ˈfæklti] ^m NAmE [ˈfæklti] ^m noun (pl. fac·ulties)1. countable, usually plural any of the physical or mental abilities that a person is born with

• the faculty of sight

• She retained her mental faculties (= the ability to think and understand) until the day she died.

• to be in full possession of your faculties (= be able to speak, hear, see, understand, etc.)

• intellectual/critical/artistic faculties

2. singular ~ of/for (doing) sth (formal) a particular ability for doing sth

• the faculty of understanding complex issues

• He had a faculty for seeing his own mistakes.

3. countable a department or group of related departments in a college or university

• the Faculty of Law

• the Arts Faculty

4. countable + singular or plural verb all the teachers in a faculty of a college or university

• the Law School faculty

• a faculty meeting

• faculty members

5. countable, uncountable (often the faculty) (NAmE) all the teachers of a particular university or college

• faculty members

Word Origin:late Middle English: from Old French faculte, from Latin facultas, from facilis 'easy', from facere 'make, do'.Example Bank:

• He is not in full possession of all his mental faculties.

• I was fortunate to receive a faculty appointment at Ohio State.

• Larger grants may ensure more funding for faculty development

• My faculty adviser made an effort to contact me.

• She is over eighty but still has all her faculties.

• She joined the faculty of the University of Maryland.

• Teachers are typically part-timers and adjunct faculty.

• The degree of job security for tenured faculty is high relative to most other jobs.

• We try to develop the student's critical faculties.

• a hearing before a faculty committee

• collaboration across faculties

• her colleagues on the faculty

• our faculty for picking up speech even in noisy environments

• students who are doing degrees in the Arts Faculty

• the Faculty of Arts

• the evolution of man's higher faculties

• the faculty at public institutions

• She retained her mental faculties until the day she died.

• a faculty for seeing his own mistakes

faculty

faculty /'fækəlti/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun (plural faculties)

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: faculté, from Latin facultas 'ability']

1. [countable] a department or group of related departments within a university ⇒ school

faculty of

" the Faculty of Law

" the Engineering Faculty

2. [uncountable and countable] American English all the teachers in a university:

" Both faculty and students oppose the measures.

3. [countable usually plural] a natural ability, such as the ability to see, hear, or think clearly:

" the patient's mental faculties

in full possession of all your faculties (=able to see, hear, think etc in the normal way)

faculty of

" the faculty of sight

4. [countable] formal a particular skill that someone has SYN talent

faculty for

" She had a great faculty for absorbing information.

faculty

Freakuency Pack

12500 4023^{MCW}

15000 1814^{COCA}

RANGE: 6k FACULTY ²¹⁰⁵⁹

faculty ¹⁹⁹⁹⁶

faculties ¹⁰⁶³

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

4883 2152¹⁹⁹⁸³ nn1

9 274700⁹ nnu

3 464034⁴ np1