

inhabitant[ɪnˈhæbɪt(ə)nt] n

житель, обитатель

inhabitants of large cities - жители крупных городов

inhabitantin·hab·it·ant [inhabitant inhabitants] BrE [ɪnˈhæbɪtənt] [ⓘ] NAmE [ɪnˈhæbɪtənt]

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

[ⓘ] noun

a person or an animal that lives in a particular place

- the oldest inhabitant of the village
- a town of 11 000 inhabitants

Word Origin:late Middle English: from Old French, from Latin inhabitare 'inhabit' .Example Bank:

- 77% of the inhabitants lived in the countryside.
- He is Brixham's oldest inhabitant.
- London has over seven million inhabitants.
- São Paulo has nearly 20 million inhabitants.
- The island's earliest inhabitants came from India.
- towns of about 10 000 inhabitants
- It eats mice, lizards and other small inhabitants of the forest floor.
- It is a town of about 10 000 inhabitants.
- the inhabitants of the rainforests/tundra/remote islands

inhabitantin·hab·it·ant /ɪnˈhæbɪtənt, ɪnˈhæbɪtənt/ BrE [ⓘ] AmE [ⓘ] noun [countable]

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

one of the people who live in a particular place:

[ⓘ] a city of six million inhabitantsinhabitant

Freakuency Pack

12500 4077^{MCW}15000 4476^{COCA}RANGE: 8k INHABITANT³⁹⁵⁴inhabitant ²³⁶inhabitants ³⁷¹⁸

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

215 48445²³⁶ nn1