

brute

1. [bru:t] n
 1. животное, тварь
gnats and other little brutes - комары и прочие мелкие насекомые
 2. животное начало, животные инстинкты
 3. жестокий, грубый или глупый и тупой человек; «скотина»
 4. эмоц.-усил. ужас, кошмар; красота
it was a brute of a job - это была чёрт знает что за работа
what a brute of a day! - ну и денёк!
 5. амер. диал. бык

2. [bru:t] a

1. грубый, животный, бесчувственный
2. жестокий
by brute force - грубой силой
3. неразумный, бессмысленный
brute beast - а) низшее животное; б) грубое, бесчувственное животное
brute creature - неразумное создание
4. неодушевлённый
brute matter - грубая материя

brute

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

brute [brute brutes] noun, adjective BrE [bru:t] ⁴ NAmE [bru:t] ⁴noun

1. (sometimes humorous) a man who treats people in an unkind, cruel way
 - His father was a drunken brute.
 - You've forgotten my birthday again, you brute!
 - an ugly brute
2. a large strong animal
3. a thing which is awkward and unpleasant

Word Origin:

late Middle English (as an adjective): from Old French brut(e), from Latin brutus 'dull, stupid'.

Example Bank:

- Their dog is an ugly brute.

adjective only before noun

1. involving physical strength only and not thought or intelligence
 - brute force/strength
2. basic and unpleasant
 - the brute facts of inequality
 - Their desire for independence has to do with brute economics.

Word Origin:

late Middle English (as an adjective): from Old French brut(e), from Latin brutus 'dull, stupid'.

brute

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. brute¹ /bru:t/ BrE ⁴ AmE ⁴ noun [countable]

a man who is cruel, violent, and not sensitive

II. brute² BrE ⁴ AmE ⁴ adjective

[Date: 1400-1500; Language: French; Origin: brut 'rough', from Latin brutus 'heavy, stupid']

1. brute force/strength physical strength, rather than intelligence and careful thinking:

" Discussion can be more effective than the use of brute force.

2. [only before noun] simple and not involving any other facts or qualities:

" The brute fact is that the situation will not improve.

" brute stupidity

brute

Frekuensi Pack

12500 4137 MCW15000 2627 COCARANGE: 4k BRUTE 10786

brute 937

brutal 5418

brutally 1485

brutality 1920

brutalities 83

brutalize 63

brutalizes 19

brutalized 287
brutalizing 81
brutalization 51
brutalise 0 brutalises 0
brutalised 0
brutalising 0
brutalisation 0
brutish 262
brutes 180

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

770 21977⁹³⁷ nn1
