

team1. [ti:m] n

1. (спортивная) команда

football [National, reserve] team - футбольная[сборная, запасная] команда second team - второй/запасной/ состав home team - хозяева поля

visiting team - гости, команда-гостя first [second] division team - команда класса А [Б] team's line-up /make-up/, team composition /personnel/ - состав команды team event(s) - командные соревнования team placing - а) командный зачёт; б) командное место в соревновании team races - командные гонки team scoring = team placing а)

team member, member of a team - игрок команды

2. 1) бригада; артель (рабочих)

team spirit - дух товарищества, коллективизм

2) группа

inspection team - инспекционная группа /бригада/maintenance team - группа технического обслуживания

a team of amateur divers - группа ныряльщиков-любителей

a team of authors - коллектив авторов team flight - ав. групповой полёт3. воен. команда; экипаж

4. 1) упряжка, запряжка

a team of horses [of dogs] - упряжка лошадей [собак]

tandem team - упряжка цугом

unicorn team - веерная упряжка team driver - возчик; погонщик to walk at the head of a team - идти в голове упряжки; быть вожаком упряжки (о собаках); быть коренником (о лошадях)2) диал., амер. упряжка с экипажем, выезд5. диал. вереница, цепочка (журавлей, уток и т. п.)6. разг. «целая артель»; ≅ что твоя артель (об очень способном или энергичном человеке)7. диал. выводок (поросят, утят)8. юр. ист. юрисдикция помещика над его крепостными2. [ti:m] *v*1. объединяться; работать сообща, артельно; объединять силы (мж. team up)

2. 1) запрягать в упряжку

teamed in pairs - запряжённые цугом

2) вести упряжку; быть погонщиком или возницей3. перевозить на лошадях, собаках *и т. п.team

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

team AW [team teams teamed teaming] noun, verb BrE [ti:m] ^u NAmE [ti:m]noun countable + singular or plural verb

1. a group of people who play a particular game or sport against another group of people

- a football/baseball, etc. team
- a team event (= one played by groups of people rather than individual players)
- (BrE) Whose team are you in?
- (NAmE) Whose team are you on?
- The team is/are not playing very well this season.

2. a group of people who work together at a particular job

- the sales team
- a team leader/member
- A team of experts has/have been called in to investigate.
- We have a team of eight working on product development

3. two or more animals that are used together to pull a [↑]cart, etc.Word Origin:Old English tēam 'team of draught animals', of Germanic origin; related to German Zaum 'bridle', also [↑]tow, from an Indo-European root shared by Latin ducere 'to lead'.Example Bank:

- Can you get a team together by Saturday?
- Cole has been selected for the team to meet Italy next week.
- He hopes to sign with an NFL team.
- He is looking to sign for a Conference League team.
- I signed up for the school basketball team.
- I'll have you on the first team.

- I'm playing for the first team this week.
- It took a tremendous team effort to finish the project on time.
- Our team lost the final.
- She has recently joined our sales team.
- She's in the team for the World Championships.
- Spain are fielding a three-man team in this race.
- The England manager has chosen his dream team for the World Cup.
- The charity sent a team to the area hit by the earthquake.
- The lads were given a rousing half-time team talk by the coach.
- The manager gives his team talks in English.
- The survival course was intended as a team building exercise.
- The team competes in a local league.
- The team consisted of six investigators and two secretaries.
- The team will work closely with other government departments.
- There are 20 people in the team.
- There are six teams taking part.
- We have a great team chemistry.
- We're learning to work together as a team.
- Willing volunteers formed teams of helpers to carry everything in.
- You and I make a good team.
- You didn't make the team, I'm afraid.
- a crack team of lawyers
- a joint team of European and North American economists
- a member of the senior management team
- a parachute display team
- a specially trained team of advisers
- the Army Parachute Display Team
- the team that developed this microchip
- A team of experts has been called in to investigate.
- After two years out with injury, he's back on the team.
- Giles led his team to a first Test victory for 10 years.
- He failed to break into the first team.
- He is likely to be selected for the England cricket team to play South Africa.
- He thanked his legal team and his family for their support.
- He was part of a research team under Professor James.
- She was a senior member of the design team working on the project.
- They need to learn to work together as a team.
- They were chosen for their capabilities as team players as well as their business skills.
- We have a very strong management team.
- We want to encourage team sports in schools.
- What team do you support?

Derived †team somebody up ▪ †team up verb usually passive ~ sb/sth (with sb/sth)

to put two or more things or people together in order to do sth or to achieve a particular effect

- This production of 'Macbeth' teams two of our finest actors.
- He was teamed with his brother in the doubles.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	team
	BrE /ti:m/
	NAmE /ti:m/
he / she / it	teams
	BrE /ti:mz/
	NAmE /ti:mz/
past simple, past participle	teamed
	BrE /ti:md/
	NAmE /ti:md/
-ing form	teaming
	BrE /ti:miŋ/
	NAmE /ti:miŋ/

Word Origin:

Old English tēam 'team of draught animals', of Germanic origin; related to German Zaum 'bridle', also †tow, from an Indo-European root shared by Latin ducere 'to lead'.

team

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

1. team ¹ S1 W1 AC /ti:m BrE ¹ AmE ¹ noun [countable]

[Language: Old English; Origin: young of an animal, group of animals pulling something]

1. a group of people who play a game or sport together against another group:

Which team do you support?

[also + plural verb British English]

Our team are winning.

in a team British English, on a team American English:

Bobby Charlton was in the team that won the World Cup.

2. a group of people who have been chosen to work together to do a particular job team of a team of experts

management/research/sales etc team

a senior member of the design team

Our success lies in working together as a team.

It was a tremendous team effort.

You need to choose a team leader.

3. two or more animals that are used to pull a vehicle

...

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 1)

ADJECTIVES/NOUN + team

- a football/basketball etc team China's football team failed to qualify for the World Cup.
- the school team I played for my school cricket team.
- the national team He coached the Italian national team.
- the home team (=the team whose sports field a game is being played on) Hayward then increased the home team's lead.
- the visiting team (=the team who have travelled to their opponents' sports field) The visiting team failed to score.
- the opposing team A member of the opposing team grabbed hold of his shirt.
- the first team British English (=the team with the best players in a school, club etc) He has played several times for the first team.
- the second team (=the team with players who are not as good as those in the first team) He stepped up from the second team when Roberts was injured.
- the winning/losing team Everyone on the winning team will get a medal.

verbs

- play for a team He wants to play for a better team.
- support a team "Which team do you support?" "Chelsea."
- captain a team (=be the captain of a team) James captained his school team from the age of eleven.
- make the team (=be chosen as a member of a team) He was never good enough to make the team.
- drop somebody from a team (=decide that someone should not play for a team) He has been dropped from the team because of injury.

team + NOUN

- the team captain The cup was presented to the team captain.
- a team member/a member of a team He's the eldest team member. | He was a popular member of the team.
- the team manager/coach Who do you think will be the next England team manager?
- a team game/sport (=one that is played by teams) In those days, girls didn't play team sports.

phrases

- play as a team One reason for the 49ers' success is that they play as a team.

...

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 2)

ADJECTIVES/NOUN + team

- a management /research/sales etc team The design team has come up with a few ideas.
- a rescue team He was in the water for two hours before a rescue team arrived.
- a good/strong team We have a very strong sales team.
- a three-man/four-man etc team (=one with three, four etc people) About a month ago he hired a four-man team of personal trainers.
- a 10-strong/14-strong etc team (=one with 10, 14 etc people) A six-strong team from the Transport Research Laboratory is at the crash scene.

team + NOUN

- a team member/a member of a team Team members meet on a regular basis.
- a team leader The team leader will co-ordinate the work.
- a team effort (=when members of a team achieve something together) It was a great team effort and all the crew did a magnificent job.
- a team meeting Hold team meetings to discuss problems.

verbs

- lead a team She was the doctor who led the surgical team.

phrases

- work as a team You have to learn to work as a team.
- make a good team (=work well together as a team) You and I make a good team.

...

THESAURUS

of animals

- herd a group of cows, deer, or elephants: A herd of cows was blocking the road.
- team a group of people who work together: She is being cared for by a team of doctors.

- flock a group of sheep or birds: a flock of seagulls | The farmer has over 100 sheep in his flock.
- pack a group of dogs or wolves: Some dogs are bred to work in packs.
- litter a group of kittens or puppies born at one time to a particular mother: He was one of a litter of seven puppies.
- school/shoal a group of fish or dolphins: Piranha fish live in shoals in the wild.

II. team² AC BrE ¹ AmE ¹ verb [transitive]

to put two things or people together, because they will look good or work well together team something with something

" black trousers teamed with a bright shirt team up phrasal verb

to join with someone in order to work on something team up with

" You can team up with one other class member if you want.

team

Freakuency Pack

12500 431^{MCW}

15000 336^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k TEAM 142235

team 110271

teamed 1264

teaming 500

teams 30200

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

33191 372¹⁰⁸⁵¹² nn1

914 20168¹⁰⁷⁸ vv0

574 27896⁶²⁹ vvi

35 127275³⁷ nnu

8 278384⁹ np1

6 343387⁶ jj