

tile

I

1. [taɪl] n

1. черепица, кафель, изразец, плитка
 Dutch tile - кафель crest /ridge/ tile - коньковая черепица flat /plain/ tile - плоская черепица tile roof - черепичная крыша /кровля/
 tile floor - кафельный/мозаичный/ пол
2. пустотелый кирпич
 tile masonry - архит. кладка из пустотелого кирпича
3. гончарная труба
4. разг. цилиндр (шляпа)
5. косточка (в маджонге)
 ◇ to have a tile loose - быть «тронутым» /«чокнутым»/
 he has a tile loose - у него не все дома to be /to go/ up(on) the tiles - сл. кутить, гулять; вести разгульный образ жизни it was pleasant to go on the tiles a little - приятно было немного поразвлечься to spend a night on the tiles - бродить ночь напролёт

2. [taɪl] v

- крыть черепицей или кафелем
 to tile a house - покрыть дом черепицей to tile the walls - отделать стены кафелем

II

[taɪl] = tyle

tile

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

tile [tile tiles tiled tiling] noun, verb BrE [taɪl] ^u NAmE [taɪl] ^u noun

1. a flat, usually square, piece of baked ^uclay, carpet or other material that is used in rows for covering walls and floors
 - ceramic floor tiles
 - carpet tiles
2. a piece of baked ^uclay that is used in rows for covering roofs
 - We lost a few tiles in the storm.

3. any of the small flat pieces that are used in particular board games
see have a night on the tiles at ^unight

Word Origin:

Old English tigele, from Latin tegula, from an Indo-European root meaning 'cover'.

verb

1. ~ sth to cover a surface with ^utiles
 • a tiled bathroom
2. ~ sth (computing) to arrange several windows on a computer screen so that they fill the screen but do not cover each other

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	tile
	BrE /taɪl/
	NAmE /taɪl/
he / she / it	tiles
	BrE /taɪlz/
	NAmE /taɪlz/
past simple, past participle	tiled
	BrE /taɪd/
	NAmE /taɪd/
-ing form	tiling
	BrE /taɪlɪŋ/
	NAmE /taɪlɪŋ/

Word Origin:

Old English tigele, from Latin tegula, from an Indo-European root meaning 'cover'.

tile

I. tile¹ S3 /taɪl/ BrE^{*} AmE^{*} noun
 [Language: Old English; Origin: tigele]

1. [countable] a flat square piece of baked clay or other material, used for covering walls, floors etc:
 bathroom tiles
 2. [countable] a thin curved piece of baked clay used for covering roofs
 3. on the tiles British English informal out drinking, dancing etc for enjoyment until late at night
- II. tile² BrE^{*} AmE^{*} verb [transitive] to cover a roof, floor etc with tiles
- tiled adjective:
 * a tiled floor
- tiler noun [countable]

tile

Frequency Pack

12500 4324^{MCW}15000 3550^{COCA}RANGE: 2k TILE 6237

tile 2934

tiles 2565

tiling 153

tiled 585

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1778 10619²⁸³³ *nn1*45 106717⁵² *vvi*48 109743⁴⁹ vv0