

cab

I

1. [kæb] n
 1. такси
cab fare - плата за проезд в такси
to call a cab - взять /заказать/ такси
to take a cab - а) взять такси; б) ехать на такси
to go in a cab - ехать на такси
 2. 1) кеб; наёмный экипаж; извозчик
 - 2) кабриолет
 3. 1) слец. кабина управления; будка машиниста
 - 2) кузов
2. [kæb] v разг.
ехать на такси или на извозчике (тж. to cab it)

II

1. [kæb] n сл.
 - 1) шпаргалка
 - 2) подстрочник
2. [kæb] v сл.
 1. заниматься мелкими кражами
 2. 1) пользоваться шпаргалкой
 - 2) пользоваться подстрочником

cab

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

cab [cab cabs] BrE [kæb] ^ˈ NAmE [kæb] ^ˈ noun

taxi (also cab, taxicab)

1. a taxi
2. the place where the driver sits in a bus, train or lorry/truck

Word Origin:

early 19th cent.: abbreviation of ↑cabriolet.

Example Bank:

- I came by cab.
- I left my umbrella in the back of the cab.
- I ordered a cab to take him home.
- I tried to hail a cab but none of them would stop.
- I'll call you a cab.
- Let's take a cab.
- London black cab drivers
- Outside, a cab was waiting.
- The cab pulled up and they got out.
- The driver was sitting in his cab.
- We couldn't find a cab anywhere near.
- We decided to share a cab.

cab

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

cab /kæb/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun [countable]

[Date: 1800-1900; Origin: cabriolet]

1. a taxi:
 - " New York's yellow cabs
 - take/get a cab
 - " I took a cab to the airport.
 - call (somebody) a cab (=telephone for a taxi)
 - " Ralph tried to hail a cab (=wave to get a cab to stop for you).
2. the part of a bus, train, or truck in which the driver sits
3. a carriage pulled by horses that was used like a taxi in the past

• • •

COLLOCATIONS

■ verbs

- take/get/catch a cab (=travel by cab) Why don't we take a cab to the theater?
- call/order (somebody) a cab (=telephone for one to come) Here's the phone number if you want to call a cab.
- phone for a cab British English (=call a cab) There's no need to give me a lift. I'll phone for a cab.
- get into/out of a cab I just saw Fiona getting into a cab.
- hail a cab written (=wave to make a cab stop for you) Martin put his hand out and hailed a cab.

■ cab + NOUN

- a cab driver Many cab drivers fear being robbed.
- a cab fare (=the money you pay to travel in a cab) My Dad gave me the money for my cab fare.
- a cab ride (=trip in a cab) It's only a short cab ride to Georgetown.

cab

Freakuency Pack

12500 4334^{MCW}

15000 3390^{COCA}

RANGE: 4k CAB 6828

cab 6155

cabs 673

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2725 6005⁶¹⁴² nn1

8 227922¹³ np1