

missing1. ['mɪsɪŋ] n (the missing) собир.

1) без вести пропавшие

2) отсутствующие

to be among the missing - быть в числе отсутствующих

2. ['mɪsɪŋ] a

1. недостающий; отсутствующий; потерявшийся

missing book - отсутствующая /недостающая, пропавшая/ книга

there is a page missing, a page is missing - здесь недостаёт страницы

the missing link - недостающее звено

he was missing for a whole day - он где-то пропал целый день fill in the missing words - заполните пропуски (недостающими словами)

2. пропавший без вести

he went missing - он пропал (без вести)

he was reported missing (in action) - сообщили, что он пропал без вести (во время боевых действий)

7 of our planes are missing - семь наших самолётов не вернулись на базу

missing

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

miss·ing ['mɪsɪŋ] BrE ['mɪsɪŋ] AmE ['mɪsɪŋ] adjective

1. that cannot be found or that is not in its usual place, or at home

Syn: †lost

• I never found the missing piece.

• My gloves have been missing for ages.

• Two files have gone missing.

• They still hoped to find their missing son.

• (especially BrE) Our cat's gone missing again.

2. that has been removed, lost or destroyed and has not been replaced

• The book has two pages missing/missing pages.

• He didn't notice there was anything missing from his room until later on.

3. (of a person) not present after an accident, battle, etc. but not known to have been killed

• He was reported missing, presumed dead.• Many soldiers were listed as missing in action.

4. not included, often when it should have been

• Fill in the missing words in this text.

• There were several candidates missing from the list.

• What is missing from the production is any sense of emotional commitment.

Example Bank:

• It was six hours before the seamen were discovered missing.

• The eighth rung of the ladder was missing altogether.

• The file was missing from its place.

• The spirit of fair play is sadly missing from the sport these days.

• The study of housework as work is a topic entirely missing from sociology.

• a quality that's largely missing in young people today

• a woman who went missing three months ago

• servicemen listed as missing in action

• the search for US soldiers listed as missing in action

missing

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

miss·ing /'mɪsɪŋ/ BrE AmE adjective[Word Family: verb: †miss; noun: †miss; adjective: †missing]

1. something that is missing is not in its usual place, so that you cannot find it:

" We found the missing piece of the jigsaw under the chair.

" The keys have been missing for ages.

missing from

" Two bottles were missing from the drugs cupboard.

go missing British English:

" The scissors have gone missing again.

2. if part of something is missing, it is no longer attached or has been destroyed:

" Two of her front teeth were missing.

" The last page of the diary was missing.

missing from

" There's a button missing from your shirt.

3. someone who is missing has disappeared, and no one knows if they are alive or dead:

" Two crew members survived, but two are still missing.

go missing British English:

" Nearly 100,000 young people go missing in Britain each year.

" When Lily did not come home, her parents called the police to report her missing.

4. not present or not included in something

missing from

" Why is my name missing from the list?

" Something was missing from her life.

5. missing in action a soldier who is missing in action has not returned after a battle and their body has not been found

missing

Freakuency Pack

12500 4539^{MCW}

15000 734^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k MISS 63823

miss 20369

missed 17709

unmissed 0

misses 2830

missing 22915

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

10718 2964¹⁴¹⁹¹ vvg

5939 4554⁸⁷¹⁰ jj

14 214344¹⁴ nnu
