

robot

[ˈrɒvbɒt] n

1. 1) робот, механический человек
  - 2) робот, автоматический манипулятор
  - 3) ав. автопилот
robot pilot - автопилот
robot plane - беспилотный самолёт
  - 4) бездушный человек, человек-машина
2. автоматический сигнал уличного движения

robot

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

robot [robot robots] BrE [ˈrɒvbɒt] <sup>m</sup> NAmE [ˈrɒbɑːt] <sup>m</sup> noun

1. a machine that can perform a complicated series of tasks automatically
  - These cars are built by robots.
2. (especially in stories) a machine that is made to look like a human and that can do some things that a human can do
3. (SAfrE) a ↑traffic light
  - Turn left at the first robot.

Word Origin:

from Czech, from robota ‘forced labour’. The term was coined in K. Čapek’s play R.U.R. ‘Rossum’s Universal Robots’ (1920).

robot

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ro|bot /ˈrɒvbɒt $ ˈrɒbɑːt,-bət/ BrE <sup>m</sup> AmE <sup>m</sup> noun [countable]

[Date: 1900-2000; Language: Czech; Origin: robota ‘work’]

a machine that can move and do some of the work of a person, and is usually controlled by a computer:

cars built by robots

robot

Freakuency Pack

12500 4797<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 3079<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 6k ROBOT 8004

robot 3938

robots 2474

robotize 0

robotizes 0

robotized 5

robotizing 0

robotise 0

robotises 0

robotised 0

robotising 0

robotic 1587

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1172 8398<sup>3938</sup> nn1