

tobacco

[tə'bæk|əv] n (pl -os, -oes [əvz])

1. бom. табак (Nicotiana tabacum)
2. 1) табак (сушёный) табачный лист
leaf tobacco - листовой табак, табак в листьях
cut tobacco - измельчённый /резаный/ табак
tobacco leaves - табачные листья
to smoke [to chew, to sniff] tobacco - курить [жевать, нюхать] табак
- 2) сорт табака
a mixture of the best tobaccos - смесь лучших сортов табака
3. табачные изделия
to sell tobacco - торговать табачными изделиями
4. курение, жевание или нюханье табака
she gave up tobacco - она бросила курить

tobacco

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

to·bacco [tobacco tobaccos] BrE [tə'bækəʊ] ^u NAmE [tə'bækou] ^u noun

uncountable, countable (pl. to·baccos)

the dried leaves of the tobacco plant that are used for making cigarettes, smoking in a pipe or chewing

- tobacco smoke
- The government imposed a ban on tobacco advertising (= the advertising of cigarettes and all other forms of ↑tobacco) .
- Several different tobaccos are grown on the land.

Word Origin:

mid 16th cent.: from Spanish tabaco; said to be from a Carib word denoting a tobacco pipe or from a Taino word for a primitive cigar, but perhaps from Arabic.

Example Bank:

- The air was thick with tobacco smoke.
- The ban on cigarette advertising will upset the tobacco lobby.
- a multi-billion-dollar tobacco settlement
- the ban on tobacco advertising

tobacco

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

to·bac·co /tə'bækəʊ $ -kou/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [uncountable]

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: Spanish; Origin: tabaco, probably from Taino, 'tobacco leaves rolled up and smoked']

1. the dried brown leaves that are smoked in cigarettes, pipes etc
2. the plant that produces these leaves

tobacco

Freakuency Pack

12500 4799^{MCW}
 15000 2595^{COCA}
 RANGE: 4k TOBACCO 11000
 tobacco 10937
 tobaccos 25
 tobacconist 24
 tobacconists 14
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 3919 3736¹⁰⁸⁷⁰ nn1
 47 103637⁵⁵ np1
 6 343472⁶ jj
 6 347845⁶ nnu