

embark

[ɪm'ba:k] v

- 1) грузить на корабль; принимать на борт
 2) грузиться или садиться на корабль или самолёт to embark at Kobe - сесть на пароход или на самолёт в Кобе, отправиться (пароходом, самолётом) из Кобе to embark for a country [a port, home] - отправиться (пароходом, самолётом) в страну [порт, домой] to embark on a steamer [on a plane] - сесть на пароход [на самолёт] to embark on an unchartered sea - пуститься в плавание по неизведанным морям
2. начинать (дело); браться (за что-л.); предпринимать (что-л.) to embark upon a new course - взять новый курс to embark upon a career - начать карьеру /трудовую деятельность/to embark on hostilities - начинать военные действия to embark in /on/ a most dangerous venture - пуститься в крайне рискованное предприятие to embark on a vast rearmament programme - начать осуществлять гигантский план перевооружения to embark one's fortune in trade - вложить свой капитал в торговлю

embark

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

em·bark [embark embarks embarked embarking] BrE [ɪm'ba:k] NAmE

[ɪm'ba:k] verb intransitive, transitive (formal)

- to get onto a ship; to put sth onto a ship
- We stood on the pier and watched as they embarked.
 - ~ sb/sth They embarked the troops by night.

Opp: ↑disembark

Derived Word ↑embarkation

Derived ↑embark on something

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	embark
	BrE /ɪm'ba:k/
	NAmE /ɪm'ba:rk/
he / she / it	embarks
	BrE /ɪm'ba:ks/
	NAmE /ɪm'ba:ks/
past simple, past participle	embarked BrE /ɪm'ba:kt/NAmE /ɪm'ba:kt/
-ing form	embarking
	BrE /ɪm'ba:kɪŋ/
	NAmE /ɪm'ba:kɪŋ/

Word Origin:

mid 16th cent.: from French embarquer, from em- 'in' + barque 'bark, ship'.

Example Bank:

- The invasion force was ready to embark.
- The team embarked for Italy.
- They travelled with him to the coast to watch him embark.
- She has already embarked on her studies.
- She was now ready to embark on her adventure
- The company has recently embarked on a new venture
- some advice for anyone seriously embarking on a career in the music business

embark

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

em·bark /ɪm'ba:k/ -ɑ:k BrE AmE verb [intransitive and transitive]

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: French; Origin: embarquer, from barque 'ship'; ⇒ ↑barque]

to go onto a ship or a plane, or to put or take something onto a ship or plane OPP disembark —embarkation /,embə'keɪʃən/ noun [uncountable and countable] embark on/upon something phrasal verb

to start something, especially something new, difficult, or exciting:

He embarked on a new career as a teacher.

embark

Freakuency Pack

12500 4875^{MCW}

15000 4985^{COCA}

RANGE: 5k EMBARK 3132

- embark 853
- embarked 1528
- embarking 580
- embarks 171

