

teacher[ˈti:tʃə] n

1. см. teach + -er
2. 1) учитель; учительница; преподаватель; преподавательница teacher of drawing [of history] - учитель рисования [истории] teacher edition - издание для учителей; методическое пособие teacher's college - педагогический институт teacher education - подготовка учителей postgraduate teacher education - подготовка преподавателей через аспирантуру student /pupil/ teacher - учитель-практикант
- 2) учитель, основоположник учения; духовный наставник; метр
the teacher and his disciples - учитель и его ученики /последователи/
3. амер. проповедник

teacher

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

teach·er [teacher teachers] BrE [ˈti:tʃə] AmE [ˈti:tʃɚ] noun

a person whose job is teaching, especially in a school

- a history/science, etc. teacher
- primary school teachers
- There is a growing need for qualified teachers of Business English.

Vocabulary Building:Teach and teachers*Verbs

teach ▫ John teaches French at the local school. ◊ ▫ She taught me how to change a tyre.

educate ▫ Our priority is to educate people about the dangers of drugs.

instruct ▫ Members of staff should be instructed in the use of fire equipment.

train ▫ She's a trained midwife. ◊ ▫ He's training the British Olympic swimming team.

coach ▫ He's the best football player I've ever coached. ◊ ▫ She coaches some of the local children in maths. (BrE)tutor ▫ She tutors some of the local children in math. (NAmE) Nouns

teacher ▫ school/college teachers

instructor ▫ a swimming/science instructor

trainer ▫ a horse trainer ◊ ▫ Do you have a personal trainer?

coach ▫ a football coach

tutor ▫ tutors working with migrant children

Example Bank:

- He is chairman of the Parent Teacher Association.
- I'm good at cooking. I had a good teacher.
- She held the post of deputy head teacher at a school in Leeds.
- She was a public school teacher.
- She's been accepted at Bath Teacher Training College.
- teacher preparation programs
- teacher ratings of reading ability
- teachers working with less able students
- teachers working with pupils with special educational needs
- His teacher sent him home for the rest of the day.
- I used to work as a history teacher.
- She was an inspirational teacher.
- Skilled classroom teachers should be better rewarded.
- Teachers of sex education will be aware of some of the myths circulating among students.
- The main teachers' union says more must be done to protect its members from assault.
- There must be some way to get rid of incompetent teachers.
- There's always been a shortage of good math teachers.
- We are looking for qualified and experienced English teachers.
- Who's your favourite teacher?
- a primary/secondary school teacher
- an elementary/a fourth-grade/a high school teacher

teacher

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

teach·er S1 W1 /ˈti:tʃə-ər/ BrE AmE noun [countable][Word Family: noun: ↑teacher, ↑teaching, TEACHINGS; verb: ↑teach] someone whose job is to teach, especially in a school:

* a primary school teacher

language/history/science etc teacher

teacher training/education (=professional training to become a teacher)

...

THESAURUS

- teacher someone who teaches as their job, especially in a school: a high school teacher
- principal (also headteacher British English) the teacher who is in charge of a school or college: The teacher sent him to the principal's office.
- tutor someone who gives private lessons to one student or a small group of students. In Britain, a tutor is also a teacher in a university: They hired a tutor to help him with his English. | Your tutor will help you find a subject for your essay.
- lecturer someone who teaches in a university or college: University lecturers aren't very well paid.
- professor a teacher in a college or university. In Britain, a professor is a high-ranking university teacher, especially one who is head of a department: She was professor of linguistics at Cambridge University.
- instructor someone who teaches a sport or a practical skill such as swimming or driving: He works as a ski instructor in the winter. | a driving instructor
- coach someone who helps a person or team improve in a sport: a professional tennis coach
- educator especially American English formal someone whose job involves teaching people, or someone who is an expert on education: Most educators agree that class sizes are still too big.
- trainer someone who teaches people particular skills, especially the skills they need to do a job: a teacher trainer | Many companies pay outside trainers to teach management skills to their staff.
- governess a woman who lived with a family and taught their children in past times: As a governess, Charlotte Brontë received twenty pounds a year.

teacher

Freakuency Pack

12500 500^{MCW}

15000 187^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k TEACH 224833

teach 23974

taught 25373

teacher 54275

teachers 68049

teaches 6712

teaching 44127

teachings 2323

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

15981 728⁵⁴²¹⁵ nn1

27 142354³⁰ nnu

17 187108¹⁸ jj

11 235473¹² np1