

brutal['bru:tɪ] a

- жестокий, зверский
- животный, грубый
brutal indecency - вопиющее неприличие brutal manners - грубые манеры brutal amusements - грубые забавы
- жестокий, горький
brutal facts - жестокие факты
brutal truth - жестокая истина
- разг.* отвратительный
the weather is perfectly brutal - отвратительная/жуткая/ погода

brutal

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

bru·tal BrE ['bruːtəl] NAmE ['bruːtəl] adjective

- violent and cruel
 - a brutal attack/murder/rape/killing
 - a brutal and repressive regime
- direct and clear about sth unpleasant; not thinking of people's feelings
 - With brutal honesty she told him she did not love him.

Derived Words ↑brutality ▪ ↑brutallyWord Origin:late 15th cent. (in the sense 'relating to the lower animals'): from Old French, or from medieval Latin brutalis, from brutus 'dull, stupid'.Example Bank:

- There have been many complaints of police brutality.
- This was an act of extreme brutality.
- brutality against prisoners
- brutality by the security forces
- brutality to others
- his brutality towards/toward opponents
- the brutality of war

Example Bank:

- We did not want to hear the details of the brutal attack.

brutal

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

bru·tal /'bruːtəl/ BrE AmE adjective

- very cruel and violent brutal murder/attack/assault
 - a brutal attack on a defenceless old man
 - a brutal man
 - not pleasant and not sensitive to people's feelings:
 - He replied with brutal honesty.
- brutally adverb:
- He was brutally murdered.
 - If I'm brutally honest, I don't like her dress.

brutal

Freakuency Pack

12500 5068^{MCW}15000 2627^{COCA}RANGE: 4k BRUTE 10786

brute 937
brutal 5418
brutally 1485
brutality 1920
brutalities 83
brutalize 63
brutalizes 19
brutalized 287
brutalizing 81
brutalization 51
brutalise 0 brutalises 0
brutalised 0
brutalising 0
brutalisation 0

brutish 262

brutes 180

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

4549 6625⁵⁴¹⁸ jj
