

overload1. [ˈəʊvələʊd] n

перезгрузка

work overload - работа с перегрузкой

the overload of electric current - эл. перенапряжение сетиoverload relay - эл. максимальное реле2. [ˌəʊvəˈləʊd] v

1. перегружать, нагружать сверх меры

to overload a boat - перегрузить лодку [судно]

2. mex. форсировать (режим работы); перегружать

to overload an electric circuit - перегружать электросеть

overload

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

over-load [overload overloads overloaded overloading] verb, noun*verb BrE [ˌəʊvəˈləʊd] ^ˈ; NAmE [ˌoʊvərˈloʊd] ^ˈ often passive*1. ~ sth to put too great a load on sth

• an overloaded truck

2. ~ sb (with sth) to give sb too much of sth

• He's overloaded with responsibilities.

• Don't overload the students with information.

3. ~ sth to put too great a demand on a computer, an electrical system, etc. causing it to fail

• The lights went out because the system was overloaded

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	overload
	BrE /ˌəʊvəˈləʊd/
	NAmE /ˌoʊvərˈloʊd/
he / she / it	overloads
	BrE /ˌəʊvəˈləʊdz/
	NAmE /ˌoʊvərˈloʊdz/
past simple, past participle	overloaded
	BrE /ˌəʊvəˈləʊdɪd/
	NAmE /ˌoʊvərˈloʊdɪd/
-ing form	overloading
	BrE /ˌəʊvəˈləʊdɪŋ/
	NAmE /ˌoʊvərˈloʊdɪŋ/

noun BrE [ˈəʊvələʊd] ^ˈ; NAmE [ˈoʊvərloʊd] ^ˈ uncountable, singular

too much of sth

• In these days of technological change we all suffer from information overload.

• An electrical overload caused the fuse to blow.

overload

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

overload /ˌəʊvəˈləʊd $ ˌoʊvərˈloʊd/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ verb (past participle overloaded oroverladen /-ˈleɪdn/) [transitive]1. to put too many things or people on or into something:

Be careful not to overload the washing machine.

be/become overloaded with something

The bus was overloaded with tourists and their luggage.

2. to put too much electricity through an electrical system or piece of equipment:

Don't overload the lighting circuit.

3. to give someone too much work or information to deal withbe/become overloaded with something

All the staff are overloaded with work.

—overload /ˈəʊvələʊd $ ˈoʊvərloʊd/ noun [uncountable and countable]:the modern day information overloadan overload of urgent daily businessoverload

Freakuency Pack

12500 5207^{MCW}15000 6646^{COCA}RANGE: 4k OVERLOAD 1764

overload 960

overladen 11

overloads 40

overloaded 619

overloading 134

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

623 24722⁷⁷¹ nn1
100 74287¹⁰⁴ vvj
84 82502⁸⁵ vv0
