

intake n

1. втягивание, всасывание
an intake of breath - вдох
2. потребление
food intake - рацион питания
the annual intake - годовое потребление
3. набор, пополнение, призыв; число принятых в учебное заведение, зачисленных на военную службу, принятых на работу или в члены какой-л. организации и т. п.
4. тех. израсходованная энергия; потребляемая мощность
5. тех.
 - 1) впуск
intake stroke - ход /такт/ всасывания
 - 2) приёмное, впускное или всасывающее устройство; заборное отверстие (насоса)
6. метал. литник
7. гидр. водозабор; головное сооружение канала
8. горн. вентиляционная выработка
9. резкое сужение (в трубке)
10. диал. осушенный участок; отгороженный участок
11. шотл.
 - 1) обман
 - 2) обманщик

intake

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

in-take [intake intakes] BrE ['ɪnteɪk] ^m NAmE ['ɪnterɪk] ^m noun

1. uncountable, countable the amount of food, drink, etc. that you take into your body
 - high fluid intake
 - to reduce your daily intake of salt
2. countable, uncountable the number of people who are allowed to enter a school, college, profession, etc. during a particular period
 - the annual student intake
 - Intake in universities is down by 10%.
3. countable a place where liquid, air, etc. enters a machine
 - the air/fuel intake
4. countable, usually singular an act of taking sth in, especially breath
 - a sharp intake of breath

Word Origin:Middle English (originally Scots and northern English): from [†]in + [†]take.Example Bank:

- Make sure you have a balanced intake of vitamins A, B, C and D.
- One of the best ways to get to your ideal size is to cut fat intake right down.
- She gave a sharp intake of breath.
- The government should be promoting a balanced intake of students for every school.
- The school has an annual intake of 20 to 30.
- You need to watch your alcohol intake.
- You should maintain a low intake of fat.
- your recommended daily intake of vitamin C

intake

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

in-take /'ɪnteɪk/ BrE ^m AmE ^m noun

1. [singular, uncountable] the amount of food, drink etc that you take into your body intake of
" Try to reduce your intake of fat.
a high/low intake
" a high intake of carbohydrates
food/alcohol/calorie etc intake
" Sickness may develop from inadequate fluid intake.
2. [uncountable and countable] the number of people who join a school, profession etc at a particular time
intake of
" an intake of around 120 students each year
3. [countable] a tube, pipe etc through which air, gas, or liquid enters a machine:
" a leak on the air intake to the carburettor
4. intake of breath a sudden act of breathing in, especially when you are shocked

intake

Freakuency Pack

12500 5235^{MCW}15000 4632^{COCA}RANGE: 6k INTAKE ³⁶⁹¹

